SCANNED JUN 03 2014

Part III Statement of Program Service AccomplishmentsCheck if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III ☒1 Briefly describe the organization's mission:

Our mission is to increase public awareness of problem gambling, expand the availability of services for those affected by problem gambling, and support research and programs for education, prevention, treatment, and responsible gambling.

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? ☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O.

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? ☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O.

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.4a (Code:) (Expenses $ 485,603 including grants of $ 12,481) (Revenue $ 0)Education/Outreach/Youth Services:

Public education focuses on helping individuals and the community at large to identify and prevent gambling addictions. This is accomplished by making problem gambling information and resources available to the general public including resources for treatment and support services. The information is available via the Council's website in electronic download as well as in print and video form. The Council operates a speaker's bureau to conduct public awareness presentations throughout the state. The bureau is available at most venues including schools, businesses, civic councils, and agencies within Washington State and other regions. The Youth Services program is designed to assist youth in making healthy choices and reduce risky behaviors. Youth services also includes an arts-based program, New Directions/Youth Arts Grants, to help youth become aware of the potential negative effects of gambling addictions and to also become aware of alternate healthy choices in entertainment and recreational activities.

4b (Code:) (Expenses $ 320,167 including grants of $ 55,868) (Revenue $ 114,823)Training/Workforce Development:

Training is made available to an array of individuals and counselors through classes, conferences and certification for professional counselors. The program strives to provide specialized training for counseling problem gamblers and family members to increase counselors' effectiveness in helping individuals overcome a gambling addiction or its negative effects on the family. The program also offers certification and training to individuals who are responsible for furnishing treatment services to those who have been identified as having a gambling addiction. Responsible Gaming Training is available for gaming industry employees at both the management and frontline staff levels.

4c (Code:) (Expenses $ 233,273 including grants of $ 137,661) (Revenue $ 0)Treatment/Therapeutic Justice:

The treatment and therapeutic justice program includes both residential and outpatient treatment services for problem gamblers. These treatment services are available to all individuals within the state who are striving to overcome gambling addiction. Outpatient treatment services are also available for family members affected by gambling addiction and living in Washington. The Council has developed a database management system to support treatment outreach. A treatment provider manual has been developed with tools and forms for service providers to deliver services to problem gamblers.

4d Other program services (Describe in Schedule O.)(Expenses $ 66,390 including grants of $ 0) (Revenue $ 0)4e Total program service expenses 1,105,433
