Return Reference	Explanation
Part II-B, Line 1i - Other Activities Description	ASO participated in efforts to pass autism health insurance reform legislation during the 2012 Legislative Session in Oregon by providing information about the current lack of health care coverage for medically necessary autism therapies and the deleterious effects on the individuals and families we serve. After the 2012 legislative session ended, ASO participated by invitation as a consumer advocacy organization in a workgroup that included all stakeholders, such as government agencies and the insurance industry, seeking to fashion draft legislation by consensus.
