In 2013, ZYZZYVA successfully executed its primary project of publishing the tri-quarterly print journal. In keeping with our Mission over the past 29 years, our goal in 2013 was to continue publishing the journal and to continue our support for writers and artists. To that end, we published three exemplary issues of the journal in 2013, featuring new works by 62 writers and substantial portfolios by 4 artists, in beautifully produced and carefully edited volumes which were distributed to bookstores and newsstands nationwide. We organized and participated in no less than 21 events to bring publicity and attention and a live audience to our authors. Nearly all of these events were free and open to the public. We continued to offer new talents their first works in print (featuring 5 previously unpublished authors in the journal over the course of the year), while also offering substantial support (through publicity in print and online media outlets, and through sustaining our increased author payments) for all our authors, new and established.
