Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 1a	The reporting organization did not provide any of the benefits listed in Part I, Line 1a. However, as part of Providence's philosophy of transparency, the narrative that follows relates to the compensation and benefits provided by the related organization. Providence Health & Services Expense Reimbursement Procedures include the following policies: First Class Travel or Charter Travel or Travel of Companions. Air travel is reimbursable for tourist or economy class and should be at the least expensive airfare, which permits departures and arrivals at reasonable times and reasonable distance traveled. Employees are encouraged to plan in advance to get available discounts. Airline frequent flyer upgrades will never be reimbursed. First class air travel will only be reimbursed when tourist or economy class air travel is not available and business travel is mandated by a supervisor. In the rare circumstance that an executive must fly on a first class full fare ticket, their senior level supervisor must approve this expense. Companion travel will only be reimbursed by the organization for travel related to relocation, and should not exceed two relocation-related visits, unless approval by the Executive Vice President, Chief Human Resource Officer VP, CHRO. Spouse or Companion Travel. Travel expenses incurred by a PH&S employee's spouse or companion will not be reimbursed by PH&S unless the spouse or companion is required to, or invited to attend a PH&S System-sponsored meeting. These expenses may be considered a taxable benefit by the IRS and if so, will be included on the employee's W-2. During 2013, none of the Officers, Directors or Key Employees listed on Form 990, Part VII utilized First Class or Companion Travel. Tax Indemnifications or Gross-Up Payments. Providence Health & Services follows the federal and state taxation laws related to relocation expenses paid to the employee or to a third party on the employee's behalf. They are considered income and are therefore subject to payroll taxes. Based on the way Providence has chosen to pay the relocation expenses, Providence reports reimbursements and payments to vendors as income and these expense payments are reflected on the executive's Form W-2. Providence will gross-up the relocation benefits to offset the personal tax burden to the employee for IRS allowable expenses. During 2013, the following Key Employee received gross-up payments: Craig Wright, MD - Relocation. The amounts reported for these gross-up payments are included on Schedule J, Part II, Column B (iii) - Other Reportable Compensation. Housing Allowance or Residence for Personal Use. Providence Health & Services provides housing allowances for purposes of relocation assistance only. Providence may pay temporary living expenses for the employee up to a maximum of 90 calendar days. Covered expenses are rent (excluding "rent" which may be paid in order to occupy a new permanent residence until the title clears) and utilities, including heat, electricity, gas, water, local internet and local telephone and garbage services. The Executive Vice President/Chief Human Resources Officer may approve temporary housing assistance for up to six months when family relocation is delayed to accommodate the school year or equivalent circumstances. Only in extenuating circumstances is housing extended beyond this six month period. During 2013, the following Key Employees received relocation/housing program payments: Craig Wright, MD; Ray Williams; Terry Smith; Randy Axelrod. The amounts reported for these relocation/housing payments are included on Schedule J, Part II, Column B (iii) - Other Reportable Compensation.

FORM 990, SCHEDULE J, PART II - EXECUTIVE PERFORMANCE AWARDS PROGRAM	The Providence Executive Incentive Program provides a lump sum award annually as a percent of the executive's base pay. Percent opportunities are aligned with our total compensation philosophy as outlined in Part VI, Section B, Line 15 (Process for determining compensation of top management, officers & key employees). The performance award is based on the level of accomplishment of annual system objectives and personal objectives. In 2013, 50 percent of the participant awards were based on pre-determined organizational goals consistent with Providence's five strategic priorities of mission driven, financially responsible, people centered, service oriented and EPIC watchlist. In 2013 the percent allocation for each of these strategic priorities was: Mission driven 5%, Financially responsible 15%, People centered 10%, Service oriented 10%, EPIC Watchlist 10%. To ensure affordability of the program, the organization (system, region or entity) must meet a threshold of 50 percent of budgeted net operating income.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Providence Health & Services maintains a conflict of interest policy that applies to board members and management of all Providence-related organizations. The purpose of the policy is to guide and direct those serving the Providence Health & Services' corporations and other legal entities so they can (1) fulfill their fiduciary responsibilities and exercise stewardship in ways that promote and protect the best interests of Providence and, (2) avoid situations that create a conflict, or the appearance of a conflict, between the interests of an individual associated with Providence and Providence. On an annual basis, each board member and management level employee must complete and submit an updated conflict of interest statement. Conflict of interest disclosures are reviewed by the System Integrity Department working in conjunction with the Department of Legal Affairs. If it is determined that an actual conflict exists, appropriate follow-up action is taken with the individual to rectify the conflict.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	It is Providence's intention to make financial information accessible and transparent. Although the filing of Form 990 provides insight into how Providence achieves its Mission, delivers its programs and stewards its finances, deciphering the information directly from Form 990 can be challenging. The following paragraphs provide further information about the process we use to determine compensation for top management, officers and key employees. Providence has a single fiduciary Board, with responsibility for financial oversight associated with fulfillment of the Providence Mission, developing system policies, protecting the assets entrusted to the organization and overseeing the strategic and operational affairs of Providence's legal entities. Providence also maintains a network of community ministry boards with responsibility for quality of care oversight, community relations, advocacy and community needs assessments. Providence has a consistent compensation philosophy for all of its employees, including our senior executives. Salaries for senior executives are determined by the Providence Board's Human Resources Committee and approved by the full Board of Directors, none of whom is a Providence employee. The Board retains an independent consultant each year to review salaries of those in the most significant leadership roles in the organization. Part of the consultant's role is to review an extensive array of compensation surveys of large, not-for-profit health care systems in the United States. Providence is one of the larger health systems in the country, and as such, the Board benchmarks executive compensation against other large, not-for-profit health systems whose revenue is similar to that of Providence. Base salaries for Providence executives are set at the median level of the market, as identified by the independent consultant and reviewed with the Human Resources Committee. Each year, the Board Chair conducts a formal performance evaluation of the President/CEO that considers input from the other directors and senior leaders reporting to the President. The evaluation is discussed with the Human Resources Committee and then a recommendation is made by the committee to the full Board. The Board Chair and the Chair of the Human Resources Committee also meet with an independent consultant to develop a salary recommendation, which is reviewed and approved first by the committee and then by the Board of Directors. Additionally, the President/CEO utilizes the market information provided by the consultant along with formal performance evaluations, to determine salary recommendations for other senior executives. This process includes a rigorous analysis of those recommendations with the Human Resources Committee as a part of the review and approval process. Performance incentives allow executives to earn additional compensation if they achieve specific organizational goals for furthering Providence operating commitments and strategic objectives - advancing the Providence Mission and core values, meeting benchmarks for charity care, achieving quality targets, delivering top-rated patient satisfaction, meeting employee satisfaction goals and reaching financial performance objectives. The Board of Directors conducts a thorough process to ensure performance incentives are aligned with appropriate practices for not-for-profit health care systems. The Board's process for executive compensation fully complies with IRS standards and mirrors the best practices recommended in the "Report to Congress and the Nonprofit Sector on Governance, Transparency, and Accountability" submitted to the Senate Finance Committee by the Panel on the Nonprofit Sector.

FORM 990 - EXPLANATION FOR AMENDED RETURN	The original return was filed showing Deferred Gifts and the related liabilities associated with those Deferred Gifts. A review by our Legal Department determined that these gifts were not held by this organization and that the amounts reported on the original return were already reported on the proper legal entity. This return is being filed to remove the aforementioned amounts. Additionally, the answers to Part VI, Section B, Questions 15a & 15b have been changed to "No" since the IRS Instructions state that this is the proper answer if compensation is determined by a related organization instead of the reporting organization.
