comprehensive guide for public employees seeking to exercise their Constitutional rights regarding union membership. Published an exhaustive review of the influence of labor unions in the 2012 state elections and briefed 15 business industry figures and state legislators on our findings. Broke a story about how an-SEIU front group was paying fast food workers to protest. Broke a story about how Black Friday protests against Wal-Mart were primarily composed of professional labor activists. Assisted several union workers in opting out of paying for their union's political activity. Coordinated Freedom Foundation's participation in the first ever National Employee Freedom Week, designed to inform union members about their rights regarding union membership.

Education Policy: Promoted policy to give every child the best education opportunities possible by securing policies in which parents are free to choose the educational options that best meet the needs of each of their children and public education dollars follow students to the school(s) chosen by the parents. Showed how local school districts can establish policies that benefit students. Advanced the ideas of free market and government neutrality in labor relations. Posted 60 blogs, commentaries, and press releases; was cited 10 times by the media; and appeared on 12 radio shows.

Citizenship and Governance: Expanded the base of citizens who understand our form of government and are willing to become involved,
