L.A. Voice

Form 990, Part III, Line 1 - Organization Mission

To transform Los Angeles into a city that reflects the human dignity of all communities, especially those in greatest need. We are an interfaith, community organization that unites people from diverse backgrounds to improve the quality of life for L.A. residents.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - Program Service Accomplishments

Community Organizing, Advocacy & Education

LA Voice is an organized manifestation of community leadership addressing community needs. LA Voice values the power, input, and leadership of those closest to the broken systems of society; therefore, those grassroots leaders and clergy guide strategy for the organization. This leadership development is the foundation of all LA Voice, with community members and clergy receiving intensive training from our talented staff to run projects and campaigns. Current programs and issue areas include:

- Immigrant integration: drivers' license implementation, lowering deportations, and citizenship for all.
- Transit development: benefiting high and low-income people, focused on affordable housing and jobs.
- Community Health: access to affordable health care and partnering with lawmakers to shape an inclusive LA County health care delivery system.
- Addressing recidivism and lack of investment in reentry programs for the formerly incarcerated by increasing job opportunities for formerly incarcerated Angelenos.
- Empowering parents to lead for programs and policies that break down barriers and prioritize quality education for all children.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b - Program Service AccomplishmentsLeadership, Clergy & Staff Training

LA Voice is an interfaith, multi-ethnic, community organization that awakens community members to their own power, training them to speak, act and work together to transform our county into one that reflects the dignity of all people. We believe all people have power and a voice. Every day we amplify that power by uniting diverse faith voices and equipping leaders to stand-up for what their communities need, winning systems change that improve the lives of Angelenos. Leadership development encompasses all of LA Voice's core programs. Through LA Voice, hundreds of individuals have received advanced training in community leadership development and are considered core leaders capable of recruiting and training their fellow community members and an additional 8,000 have taken at least one action together in the past two years. Thus, LA Voice is helping people build a sustainable infrastructure in their communities capable of improving lives today and over the long-term.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 6 - Explanation of Classes of Members or Shareholder

LA Voice defines its members as congregations. There are two tiers of members: 1) dues paying member institutions that have a vote on various leadership bodies and 2) associate members and strategic partners, who may or may not contribute financially to the organization and do not vote on organizational decisions (such as board appointments) but partner with the organization on campaigns and training. Strategic partners can include clergy who participate in the clergy caucus, but whose institutions do not yet pay dues.
