Affidavit by:

Steven Muncy

Executive Director

Community and Family Services International

For the benefit of:

CONSUELO ZOBEL ALGER FOUNDATION

31 July 2014

This affidavit must be written in English and contain the substantive information indicated.

An English translation must be provided for any supporting documents that are not written in English.

The undersigned, to assist the Consuelo Zobel Alger Foundation, a private foundation in the United States of America, determine whether Community and Family Services International (Organization) is the equivalent of a public charity described in section 509(a)(1), (2) or (3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code or a private operating foundation described in section 4942(j)(3) of the Code, makes the following statement:

1. I am the Executive Director of the Organization.
2. The Organization was created by Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), Registration No. 0105084 in 1982, and is operated exclusively for:

   ☑ charitable

   ☐ religious

   ☐ scientific

   ☐ literary

   ☐ educational

   ☐ fostering national or international amateur sports competition, or

   ☐ prevention of cruelty to children or animals

   purposes under the laws of the Republic of the Philippines.

3. CFSI is a humanitarian nongovernmental organization. Established in 1981, CFSI is based in the Philippines, but works internationally, usually in close cooperation with the international community, specifically, the specialized agencies of the United Nations system, multi-lateral financing institutions like the World Bank, and governments) as well as the private sector, both international and domestic (e.g., international as well as national NGOs, foundations, corporate entities, academic institutions, groups, and individuals).

   The mission of CFSI is to vigorously protect and promote human security—specifically the lives, well being, and dignity of people uprooted by persecution, armed conflict, disasters, and other exceptionally difficult circumstances. These include refugees, internally displaced persons, stateless persons, and disadvantaged, vulnerable persons.

   CFSI has two major goals. The first is to empower and equip uprooted persons and others in exceptionally difficult circumstances to address and prevent social and health problems. The second is to prevent children, women, and men from being uprooted by promoting peace, respect for human rights, and the equitable distribution of resources.

The operations of CFSI are humanitarian in nature and focused on Asia, primarily but not exclusively the states comprising the Association of South East Asian Nations (ASEAN). Activities—past, present, and anticipated—include: (i) addressing the humanitarian needs of communities affected by armed conflict and large-scale emergencies, including natural disasters, (ii) building local capacity to protect and promote the physical and psychosocial wellbeing of crisis-affected and otherwise highly vulnerable populations, (iii) protecting and promoting the welfare of children and youth, particularly those in exceptionally difficult circumstances and in need of special protection, (iv) promoting physical and mental health and preventing disease as well as disability, and (v) informing policy and practice and contributing to the knowledge base at the domestic and international levels.

Between 2008 and 2013, CFSI was operational in the Philippines, Myanmar (Burma), Viet Nam, and Timor-Leste (East Timor). As of 2014, CFSI is operational in three countries—the Philippines, Myanmar, and Viet Nam. All three country programmes are expected to grow in 2014 and 2015.

4. Copies of the charter, by laws, and other documents pursuant to which the Organization is governed are attached.

5. The laws and customs applicable to the Organization do not permit any of its income or assets to be distributed to, or applied for the benefit of, a private person or non-charitable organization other than pursuant to the conduct of the Organization's charitable activities, or as payment of reasonable compensation for services rendered or as payment representing the fair market value of property which the Organization has purchased.

6. The Organization has no shareholders or members who have a proprietary interest in the income or assets of the Organization.

7. In the event that the Organization were to be liquidated or dissolved, all its assets would be distributed to another accredited not-for-profit organization for charitable, religious, scientific, literary, or educational purposes or to a government instrumentality. A copy of the relevant provisions in the governing instruments controlling the distribution of the Organization's assets on liquidation is specified under the eleventh article of the Organization's Articles of Incorporation as attached.

8. The laws and customs applicable to the Organization do not permit the Organization other than as an insubstantial part of its activities,

Gentlemen:

This refers to your request for exemption from the payment of income tax and the filing of the corresponding income tax return under Section 26 of the National Internal Revenue Code, as amended.

Investigation conducted by this Office disclosed that the Community & Family Services International, Inc. (formerly Community Mental Health and Family Services, Inc.) is a non-stock, non-profit corporation duly registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission on April 24, 1987; that the purposes for which the corporation is formed are: (1) to sponsor, support, undertake, implement, promote and finance the provision of comprehensive psychological services to the Indo Chinese refugee and international staff populations of refugee camps and processing centers located in the Republic of the Philippines; (2) to sponsor, support, design, undertake, conduct, promote, finance and publish studies, survey, evaluations, and other forms of documentation that will benefit mental health service providers, persons working with refugees, and the general public on a non-discriminatory basis; and (3) to acquire, construct, improve, maintain, and equip offices and counselling/resource centers necessary for service provision; that the corporation shall be maintained through donations, contributions, gifts and devices; and that no part of its net income shall inure to the benefit of any private individual or member.

as contemplated under Section 26(g) of the National Internal Revenue Code, as amended. Accordingly, it is exempt from the payment of income tax on income received by it as such organization, and therefore, need not file an income tax return concerning such income. However, it is subject to the corresponding internal revenue taxes imposed under the National Internal Revenue Code on its income derived from any of its properties, real or personal, or any activity conducted for profit regardless of the disposition thereof, which income should be returned for taxation. Accordingly, interest income from Philippine currency bank deposits and yield or any other monetary benefit from deposit substitute instruments are subject to the 20% final withholding tax pursuant to Section 24(e) in relation to Section 50(a) both of the Tax Code, as amended. Moreover, it is required to file on or before April 15 of each year a profit and loss statement and balance sheet with the annual information return under oath, stating its gross income and expenses incurred during the year and a certificate showing that there has not been any change in its By-Laws, Articles of Incorporation, manner of operation and activities as well as sources and disposition of income.

It is requested that a copy of this letter of exemption be attached to the annual information return which you will file on or before April 15 of each year.

It should be understood that the said exempt organization/foundation shall be constituted as withholding agent of the government if it acts as an employer and its employees received compensation income subject to withholding tax, or if it makes income payment to individual or corporations subject to the expanded withholding tax provided for in Section 50(b) of the Tax Code as amended, as implemented by Revenue Regulations No. 6-85, as amended.

Very truly yours,

EUFRACIO D. SANTOS
Deputy Commissioner

Mr. Steven Muncy
Executive Director

2/F Torres Bldg., 2442 Park Avenue
Pasay City

Dear Mr. Muncy:

Our warm greetings and congratulations!

We are pleased to inform you that based on the deliberation by the PCNC Board during its meeting on February 6, 2014 your organization passed PCNC standards and is granted a five (5) – year certification for donee institution status. We already sent a Secretary's Certificate to the BIR for confirmation of your certification. The BIR shall be issuing you the certificate of donee institution status if it finds all your papers in order.

Meanwhile, we are sending here additional recommendations from the evaluation team that we hope you will find worthwhile for your organization's growth and development. We expect these recommendations to be implemented within your organization's certification life.

1. Define clearly in the Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws the agreed upon terms of office or term limits of the BOT officers and members.
2. Staff in-charge of the disbursement records must ensure that all documents are stamped paid as scheduled.
3. Come up with an institutionalized fund generation scheme to help sustain its operation on a long-term basis even when international funding support decreases.
4. Update in the Personnel Manual the job descriptions of all regular personnel as cited in their contracts.

When you re-apply for certification after five (5) years, our next evaluation team will look into your implementation of the above recommendations. We wish you the best in all your undertakings. With our best regards.

Sincerely yours,
