Guidelines

First time or nonrecurring applicants should submit a two or three page letter of inquiry. Current grantees should contact the Executive Director before submitting a new proposal.

Letters of inquiry should include:

- A brief statement of the organizations purpose and goals.
- If applicable, a description of the project, the need and target population it addresses.
- Information about the capability of the leadership to implement the proposed project.
- Short and long-term outcomes anticipated and plans for assessing achievements.
- Grant amount needed.
- A recent financial statement, audited if possible.
- A statement about the total agency budget and project budget, if different.
- A statement about other funding sources for the agency and/or project, specifying both committed and projected sources of support.

If you are requesting $1,000 or less, we may be able to evaluate your request based on the information contained in your letter of inquiry. However, you must also include a copy of your 501(c)(3) determination letter and a copy of your organization's current budget/.
