All Legacy employees and non-employees in leadership positions (e.g., Board members, Foundation Trustees, Medical Directors) are required to disclose potential conflicts of interest as the conflict arises. All employees are required to disclose any conflict of interest per the Standard of Conduct policy. Certain groups have annual formal disclosure requirements. Executives and non-employees in leadership positions complete the Conflict Disclosure Statement from the Standards of Conduct policy annually. Officers, Directors, Trustees, Key and Highly Compensated employees are also required to complete a questionnaire covering business relationships, business transactions with interested parties, loans and grants. Conflict Disclosure Statements and questionnaires are returned to Legacy Corporate Compliance or Tax Departments for review of the disclosure. If a conflict is disclosed, or identified through any other means, Legacy Corporate Compliance ensures that management mitigates the risk (e.g., discontinues relationship with vendor, segregates responsibilities, recuses Board member from voting in area of conflict) and that the conflict and mitigation steps are reported to the appropriate level (e.g., Compliance Committee, Audit Committee of the Board).

External consultants are regularly used to review published compensation surveys of comparable organizations and comparable benchmark positions in the market. The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors, none of whom is a Legacy employee, reviews the compensation for key executive positions. The Committee oversees the system's governance procedures with respect to the evaluation of reasonableness of compensation. The Committee reports to the Board in sufficient detail to enable the entire Board to take such actions as are required to obtain the rebuttable presumption of reasonableness.
