3

Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services?

☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O

4

Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported

4a

(Code) (Expenses $ 54,028 including grants of $) (Revenue $)

Construction of clean water supply systems, hygiene education and latrine construction Contaminated water is responsible for a myriad of health problems including Typhoid, Cholera and parasitic infections Women and children walk miles each way carrying heavy containers of water Gathering just 20 liters of water can take up to nine hours a day, this amount is only sufficient for one household for two days and just for cooking food Reducing the amount of work that women have to devote to water collection improves the economic situation by giving them time to use for other more economically useful purposes Hygiene education teaches people to avoid diseases that currently flourish because of lack of clean water

4b

(Code) (Expenses $ 52,876 including grants of $ 38,038) (Revenue $)

Participants learn about development issues and the effects of poverty in East Africa Travelers who have supported projects can see the effects of their donations and gain a more complete understanding of the role of the project in improving the outlook for the entire community Travelers receive a comprehensive insight into the challenges facing African communities as well as what future actions will work best to solve problems while maintaining cultural integrity From face-to-face meetings with development groups such as members of womens livestock cooperatives, participants gain a personal knowledge of the value of sustainable community development and are better able to evaluate and understand the work of GPFD

4c

(Code) (Expenses $ 34,870 including grants of $) (Revenue $)

A rural African schoolgirl faces many educational challenges as well as copes with the burden of her responsibilities at home Her graduation from secondary school is a victory in the face of overwhelming odds To support these girls and help them realize their dreams, Global Partners created the Marlene Assell Education Fund This scholarship program now includes University, pre-University and College (Nursing, Teaching, Vocational) as well as lower secondary education We are committed to helping young women realize their full potential
