Part IV Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2, Part III, column (b), and any other additional information.

- Contributions to individuals are based upon financial and/or medical necessity and upon the funds available. Donations to individuals can only be paid through fund-raising efforts on behalf of the organization and its volunteers.
- As part of our annual Community Service Program, baskets of food are purchased and distributed to needy individuals and families in our local community. Names are collected through various income support agencies.
- Scholarships in the amount of $500.00 are awarded annually to each graduating senior in the local area who submits a request. Additional scholarships may or may not be awarded on behalf of the various fund-raising committees, depending on funds available. At times, other requests from other area individuals are also considered. Amounts are based upon financial need. All requests are reviewed by the Charities Committee, recommended for approval by the governing board of officers, and final approval is obtained by a vote of the membership at a regular membership meeting. No scholarships are awarded directly to the individual, they are instead made out to the college or secondary school after we receive written confirmation that the student has enrolled.
