Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Each director, principal officer, and member of a committee with governing board-delegated powers sign a Conflict of Interest statement
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	The Executive Committee of the board is responsible for making a recommendation to the full board regarding compensation. The Finance committee of the board is responsible for making a recommendation about funding of compensation. The executive committee is a permanent committee of the board. Among the responsibilities and authority of the executive committee is that relating to executive compensation. This committee is responsible for the hiring and evaluation of the principal administrator(s) of the organization. The committee reviews compensation practices and programs for principal administrators, provides leadership in this area, and upholds the tax-exempt status of the organization. The executive committee reports its determinations to the full board. The executive committee of the board reviews and approves the compensation policies and programs of principal administrators. The policy of the foundation is to provide a compensation program that reflects the relative size and type of organization of which it is a part and which will accomplish the foundations mission and tax-exempt purpose without causing any part of the foundations net earnings to inure to the private benefit of an individual or group of individuals. The committee will accomplish this policy in the following manner: Determine the relevant market data for the principal administrator position; it reviews by obtaining reliable and comparable data. Develop a target base pay range built off the median of the market data. Set base salary by considering both market data and each individuals background experiences, skills, and meritorious contribution. Set salary increase reassessments based on external equity, internal equity, and/or merit.
