Most brokers issue their own substitute statement instead of using Form 1099-B. They also may provide basis information (usually your cost) to you on the statement even if it is not reported to the IRS. Before you check Box A, B, or C below, determine whether you received any statement(s) and, if so, the transactions for which basis was reported to the IRS. Brokers are required to report basis to the IRS for most stock you bought in 2011 or later.

Part I Short-Term. Transactions involving capital assets you held one year or less are short-term. For long-term transactions, see page 2.

Note. You may aggregate all short-term transactions reported on Form(s) 1099-B showing basis was reported to the IRS and for which no adjustments or codes are required. Enter the total directly on Schedule D, line 1a; you are not required to report these transactions on Form 8949 (see instructions).

You must check Box A, B, or C below. Check only one box. If more than one box applies for your short-term transactions, complete a separate Form 8949, page 1, for each applicable box. If you have more short-term transactions than will fit on this page for one or more of the boxes, complete as many forms with the same box checked as you need.

- ☒ (A) Short-term transactions reported on Form(s) 1099-B showing basis was reported to the IRS (see Note above)
- ☐ (B) Short-term transactions reported on Form(s) 1099-B showing basis was not reported to the IRS
- ☐ (C) Short-term transactions not reported to you on Form 1099-B

Most brokers issue their own substitute statement instead of using Form 1099-B. They also may provide basis information (usually your cost) to you on the statement even if it is not reported to the IRS. Before you check Box A, B, or C below, determine whether you received any statement(s) and, if so, the transactions for which basis was reported to the IRS. Brokers are required to report basis to the IRS for most stock you bought in 2011 or later.

Part I Short-Term. Transactions involving capital assets you held one year or less are short-term. For long-term transactions, see page 2.

Note. You may aggregate all short-term transactions reported on Form(s) 1099-B showing basis was reported to the IRS and for which no adjustments or codes are required. Enter the total directly on Schedule D, line 1a; you are not required to report these transactions on Form 8949 (see instructions).

You must check Box A, B, or C below. Check only one box. If more than one box applies for your short-term transactions, complete a separate Form 8949, page 1, for each applicable box. If you have more short-term transactions than will fit on this page for one or more of the boxes, complete as many forms with the same box checked as you need.

- ☒ (A) Short-term transactions reported on Form(s) 1099-B showing basis was reported to the IRS (see Note above)
- ☐ (B) Short-term transactions reported on Form(s) 1099-B showing basis was not reported to the IRS
- ☐ (C) Short-term transactions not reported to you on Form 1099-B

Most brokers issue their own substitute statement instead of using Form 1099-B. They also may provide basis information (usually your cost) to you on the statement even if it is not reported to the IRS. Before you check Box D, E, or F below, determine whether you received any statement(s) and, if so, the transactions for which basis was reported to the IRS. Brokers are required to report basis to the IRS for most stock you bought in 2011 or later.

Part II Long-Term. Transactions involving capital assets you held more than one year are long term. For short-term transactions, see page 1.

Note. You may aggregate all long-term transactions reported on Form(s) 1099-B showing basis was reported to the IRS and for which no adjustments or codes are required. Enter the total directly on Schedule D, line 8a; you are not required to report these transactions on Form 8949 (see instructions).

You must check Box D, E, or F below. Check only one box. If more than one box applies for your long-term transactions, complete a separate Form 8949, page 2, for each applicable box. If you have more long-term transactions than will fit on this page for one or more of the boxes, complete as many forms with the same box checked as you need.

☐ (D) Long-term transactions reported on Form(s) 1099-B showing basis was reported to the IRS (see Note above)

☒ (E) Long-term transactions reported on Form(s) 1099-B showing basis was not reported to the IRS

☐ (F) Long-term transactions not reported to you on Form 1099-B

Most brokers issue their own substitute statement instead of using Form 1099-B. They also may provide basis information (usually your cost) to you on the statement even if it is not reported to the IRS. Before you check Box D, E, or F below, determine whether you received any statement(s) and, if so, the transactions for which basis was reported to the IRS. Brokers are required to report basis to the IRS for most stock you bought in 2011 or later.

Part II Long-Term. Transactions involving capital assets you held more than one year are long term. For short-term transactions, see page 1.

Note. You may aggregate all long-term transactions reported on Form(s) 1099-B showing basis was reported to the IRS and for which no adjustments or codes are required. Enter the total directly on Schedule D, line 8a; you are not required to report these transactions on Form 8949 (see instructions).

You must check Box D, E, or F below. Check only one box. If more than one box applies for your long-term transactions, complete a separate Form 8949, page 2, for each applicable box. If you have more long-term transactions than will fit on this page for one or more of the boxes, complete as many forms with the same box checked as you need.

- ☐ (D) Long-term transactions reported on Form(s) 1099-B showing basis was reported to the IRS (see Note above)
- ☒ (E) Long-term transactions reported on Form(s) 1099-B showing basis was not reported to the IRS
- ☐ (F) Long-term transactions not reported to you on Form 1099-B

Most brokers issue their own substitute statement instead of using Form 1099-B. They also may provide basis information (usually your cost) to you on the statement even if it is not reported to the IRS. Before you check Box A, B, or C below, determine whether you received any statement(s) and, if so, the transactions for which basis was reported to the IRS. Brokers are required to report basis to the IRS for most stock you bought in 2011 or later.

Part I Short-Term. Transactions involving capital assets you held one year or less are short-term. For long-term transactions, see page 2.

Note. You may aggregate all short-term transactions reported on Form(s) 1099-B showing basis was reported to the IRS and for which no adjustments or codes are required. Enter the total directly on Schedule D, line 1a; you are not required to report these transactions on Form 8949 (see instructions).

You must check Box A, B, or C below. Check only one box. If more than one box applies for your short-term transactions, complete a separate Form 8949, page 1, for each applicable box. If you have more short-term transactions than will fit on this page for one or more of the boxes, complete as many forms with the same box checked as you need.

- ☐ (A) Short-term transactions reported on Form(s) 1099-B showing basis was reported to the IRS (see Note above)
- ☐ (B) Short-term transactions reported on Form(s) 1099-B showing basis was not reported to the IRS
- ☒ (C) Short-term transactions not reported to you on Form 1099-B

Most brokers issue their own substitute statement instead of using Form 1099-B. They also may provide basis information (usually your cost) to you on the statement even if it is not reported to the IRS. Before you check Box D, E, or F below, determine whether you received any statement(s) and, if so, the transactions for which basis was reported to the IRS. Brokers are required to report basis to the IRS for most stock you bought in 2011 or later.

Part II Long-Term. Transactions involving capital assets you held more than one year are long term. For short-term transactions, see page 1.

Note. You may aggregate all long-term transactions reported on Form(s) 1099-B showing basis was reported to the IRS and for which no adjustments or codes are required. Enter the total directly on Schedule D, line 8a; you are not required to report these transactions on Form 8949 (see instructions).

You must check Box D, E, or F below. Check only one box. If more than one box applies for your long-term transactions, complete a separate Form 8949, page 2, for each applicable box. If you have more long-term transactions than will fit on this page for one or more of the boxes, complete as many forms with the same box checked as you need.

☐ (D) Long-term transactions reported on Form(s) 1099-B showing basis was reported to the IRS (see Note above)

☐ (E) Long-term transactions reported on Form(s) 1099-B showing basis was not reported to the IRS

☒ (F) Long-term transactions not reported to you on Form 1099-B

ESTHER B. KAHN CHARITABLE FOUNDATION

www.estherbkahn.org

Esther B. Kahn, an innovative educator, philanthropist and patron of the arts established this Charitable Foundation in 1998 for the purpose of supporting and funding innovative approaches to education, the arts and medical research. Esther died on April 30, 2002, but continues to make contributions and impact the lives of others in a positive way through this Foundation.

The Foundation only makes grants to organizations as described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Foundation does not make grants to individuals or organizations classified as a private foundation.

Next Preliminary Application Deadline:
June 30, 2014

Purpose and Objective

The Foundation generally supports projects where the grant will make a significant difference and where the desired result will be tangible, lasting and can be accomplished within a reasonable period of time. Nevertheless, the Foundation seeks to encourage innovation and recognizes that this may involve risk. Because the Foundation's resources are modest grants are generally awarded for amounts up to $25,000. The Foundation also hopes its grant awards may act as a lever to attract matching funds from other sources that may not otherwise be forth-coming.

Grant applications are considered by the Trustees of the Foundation semi-annually, generally in February and August. Applications submitted between January 1 and June 30 will be considered at the August meeting and Applications submitted between July 1 and December 30 will be considered at the February meeting.

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

Dear Grant Applicant:

Since September 2007 a new two-stage application process has been established for all grant applications. The Foundation Trustees will review only applications submitted according to the guidelines outlined below. If your preliminary application is reviewed favorably by the Trustees, you will be invited to submit a final application for consideration.

Stage One:

Preliminary Application

All applications must be submitted on the electronic web form, follow preliminary application link below.

The following information must be included:

1. Brief description of the organization (if a grant has previously been awarded it is only necessary to indicate "past grant recipient");
2. Description of the project or need; and
3. Budget for the project.

Stage Two:

Final Application (***BY INVITATION ONLY*****)

Those invited to submit a final application must provided the information by (i) electronic web form, follow final application link below, and (ii) four paper copies of the form and attachments by mail required.

The following information must be included:

1. More detailed description of the organization.
  - Its history, goals and principal accomplishments, list of current Board of Directors, staff and number of members;
  - Summary of annual budget, including principal sources of operating support, and unrestricted capital resources (endowment); and
  - A copy of the latest IRS tax status letter.

2. A description of the project or need.

- What will be accomplished?
- Does it have a reasonable assurance of success?
- Where appropriate, please give a brief description of the scientific rationale.
- How does it seek to "break new ground"?
- Provide a breakdown of its cost. How much of that is "overhead"?

3. The capability to carry the project through to completion.

- What are the qualifications of the person or persons responsible for implementation?
- If other funds are required, will the project be started before the balance has been received?
- Will a grant from the Esther B. Kahn Charitable Foundation "make or break" the project?
- What criteria will be used to measure success?
- In due course, will you provide the Trustees with an objective appraisal of the project's success?

In addition to the electronic web form, a total of four paper copies of the Final Application and attachments must be mailed to the following address, without staples or bindings (paper clips and/or binder clips are acceptable):

Esther B. Kahn Charitable Foundation
c/o John M. Cornish, Trustee
Choate Hall & Stewart LLP
Two International Place
Boston, Massachusetts 02110

Unfortunately, it is not possible for the Trustees to meet with prospective applicants, nor provide individual feedback on submitted applications. The Trustees meet in February and August and the final grant applicants will be notified within ten (10) business days after the Trustees' meeting whether or not they have been awarded a grant. If a grant has been awarded to the organization, a check will be included with your notification of award.

Very truly yours,

John M. Cornish, Trustee
