Most brokers issue their own substitute statement instead of using Form 1099-B. They also may provide basis information (usually your cost) to you on the statement even if it is not reported to the IRS. Before you check Box A, B, or C below, determine whether you received any statement(s) and, if so, the transactions for which basis was reported to the IRS. Brokers are required to report basis to the IRS for most stock you bought in 2011 or later.

Part I Short-Term. Transactions involving capital assets you held one year or less are short-term. For long-term transactions, see page 2.

Note. You may aggregate all short-term transactions reported on Form(s) 1099-B showing basis was reported to the IRS and for which no adjustments or codes are required. Enter the total directly on Schedule D, line 1a; you are not required to report these transactions on Form 8949 (see instructions).

You must check Box A, B, or C below. Check only one box. If more than one box applies for your short-term transactions, complete a separate Form 8949, page 1, for each applicable box. If you have more short-term transactions than will fit on this page for one or more of the boxes, complete as many forms with the same box checked as you need.

HOLDINGS

In instances where prices of securities are not readily available, securities have no values, securities may not have been actively traded or where other factors prevent the pricing of securities, *** appears in the market price column, the market value for the security is not computed and the total equity in your account does not reflect the long or short market value (if any) of those securities. Please also note that totals may differ from the sum on individual components due to rounding. Unrealized gain/loss total reflects all positions for which a cost basis is available. Please review the Tax Lot section for details regarding cost basis.
