For ten consecutive years, the Bitterroot Performing Arts Council has presented an annual curated series of performing arts events to audiences in rural Western Montana. In this tenth season, we offered our patrons the opportunity to experience a world-renowned classical violinist, a troupe of modern dance illusionists, a pop cellist, two diverse sets of international guitar trios, a roots-driven acoustic band and a quintet of high-energy musicians of the Quebecois tradition.

In addition to evening performances for a diversified audience traveling from a 250-mile radius, guest artists agree to provide additional educational outreach experiences to local students of all ages during their stay in our area. For example, in May 2014 virtuoso violinist Hilary Hahn met with several dozen elementary-aged string students in a small, rural cafeteria/rehearsal space. She deeply inspired them with her international experiences, sincere advice and personal music theory and offered a singular educational opportunity unique to rural students. We endeavor to include these kinds of outreach experiences with at least half of the artists we present each year to enhance our mission. We have worked to consistently grow our audience base each year with an active board of directors, dedicated employees and loyal volunteers.
