Return Reference	Explanation
Part V, Line 4	Endowments are used to promote the ability to perform research and education in the field of Osteopathic medicine
Part X, Line 2	The accounting standard on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under this guidance, the Association may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. Examples of tax positions include the tax-exempt status of the Association, and various positions related to the potential sources of unrelated business taxable income. As of May 31, 2014 and 2013, there were no unrecognized tax positions identified or recorded as liabilities

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	Prior to filing, the Controller and CEO review Form 990 and then provide it to the Audit Committee for review and approval
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Each vendor form and capital request form is accompanied by a conflict of interest statement. Before such requests are approved the requesting officer, director, trustee, or key employee must disclose any potential conflict of interest. Those key personnel with conflicts are advised to recuse themselves from participating in decision making related to the conflict.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	The compensation (salaries, bonuses, benefits) for the Executive Director, officers and key employees are set based upon information provided by an independent salary consultant, who furnishes information drawn from surveys of information (including Forms 990) from comparable healthcare associations and other employers in the relevant geographic markets. A committee of the Board of Trustees - the Committee on Administrative Personnel (COAP) - is provided with the information for the Executive Director's compensation and makes recommendations for final approval by the entire Board of Trustees. Compensation for the President, President-elect and Immediate Past President are based upon information regarding compensation for physicians for one year and approved by a disinterested majority of the Committee on Administrative Personnel and Board of Trustees. The Committee on Administrative Personnel also reviews and makes recommendations to the Board of Trustees regarding aggregate compensation for the other officers and key employees.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19	The AOA's governing documents (constitution and bylaws and code of ethics) are published online and available at the AOA's website - http://www.osteopathic.org/Pages/default.aspx . The Association's conflict of interest policy and financial statements are available to the public upon request for the same period of disclosure as set forth in IRC Section 6104(d).
