Part IV Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2, Part III, column (b), and any other additional information.

Part I - Question 2: NewThreads of Hope, Inc. distributes its contributed merchandise through a network of government and charitable organizations.

NewThreads regularly monitors these organizations through site visits and follow up reports from the organizations as to how the merchandise was either used by the organizations in caring for those in need or distributed directly to those in need.

Part 2 - Question 1(g) and 1(h): Various manufacturers, retailers and wholesalers donate merchandise (primarily clothing, bed and bath items, books, household goods and other softgoods) to NewThreads for its gifts-in-kind program. These donated items are then sorted and redistributed to people in need through other governmental and charitable organizations. Merchandise is never sold and must be used for the care of or given to the poor, the ill, the elderly or children.

Merchandise is typically distributed by participating agencies through either local clothes closets, food pantries, homeless shelters, church or school programs.

Additional Information - Lines 4(d) and 5(d) - Methods of determining revenues

Various manufacturers, retailers and wholesalers donate brand-new merchandise (primarily clothing, bed and bath items, household goods, books, educational materials and other softgoods) to NewThreads of Hope, Inc., for its gifts-in-kind program.

NewThreads takes these donated items, sorts, processes and then redistributes these to people in need through its network of nonprofit and governmental organizations. The merchandise is never sold and must be used for the care of or use of the poor, the ill, the elderly or children. The majority of the donated merchandise is valued at an estimated retail value.

Most donating corporations provide NewThreads with a valuation of the merchandise they contributed (typically the retail value or some other modified cost valuation). When no valuations are provided by the donor (which rarely happens), NewThreads estimates the retail value by comparing the merchandise donated to other similar merchandise being sold in retail stores or through on-line retailers.
