Return Reference	Explanation
Part III, Line 4	The artwork maintained by the Ross Institute is utilized for educational purposes and is integrated into the curriculum
Part V, Line 4	Each fiscal year, the Institute is authorized to expend from the Scholarship Fund (endowment) an amount equal to four and one-half percent of the principal of the endowment as of the first business day of such year, or such other amount as shall be mutually agreed upon by the donor or the donor's designated representatives and the Ross School. The endowment payout shall be paid first from the income of the endowment and, if and to the extent that such income is insufficient, from the principal of the endowment. If the income of the endowment in any fiscal year exceeds the authorized payout amount for such year, the excess will be added to principal at the end of such fiscal year. The endowment payout for each fiscal year shall be used to award scholarships to help support the tuition for one or more students at the Institute entering the ninth grade who have exhibited a deep interest in or enjoyment of the arts and/or sciences, especially the environmental science, and who are eligible on a needs basis for financial aid at the Institute.
Part X, Line 2	The effects of a tax position taken or expected to be taken are recognized in the consolidated financial statements when it is more likely than not, based on the technical merits, that the position will be sustained upon examination. Interest and penalties, if any, are reported in expenses in the consolidated statements of activities. As of June 30, 2014 and 2013, the Institute had no uncertain tax positions that qualify for recognition or disclosure in the consolidated financial statements. The Institute files tax and other information returns in the U S and certain states. The Institute is generally no longer subject to U S federal or state examinations by tax authorities for years before 2009.
