Return Reference	Explanation
Part III, Line 1a	The Museum has elected not to capitalize its collections and objects of art, including the Zimmerman House, all of which are significant to the Museum's operations and mission The value of the objects acquired by gift, for which the Museum can make a reasonable estimate, totaled $375,700 and $828,500 for the years ended June 30, 2014 and 2013, respectively An estimate of the total value of objects acquired by gift in years prior to 1997 is not readily determinable The total value of gifts received since 1997 is $11,232,195 The total value of objects purchased from December 31, 1997 through June 30, 2014 was $19,825,482 For the years ended June 30, 2014 and 2013, the Museum sold deaccessioned collections and objects of art totaling $28,847 and $8,830, respectively The selling price of these items approximated their fair value
Part III, Line 4	The Currier is New Hampshire's largest art museum with world-class European and American art collections of over 13,100 objects that are at the core of its education, studio, and exhibition programs Comprised of the Museum, the Art Center, and the Frank Lloyd Wright-designed Zimmerman House, the Currier received reaccreditation from the American Alliance of Museums in November of 2012 In its 86-year history, the Museum has built collections of both international stature and regional importance Today, the Museum's holdings of more than 13,100 objects include major works by such European masters as Tiepolo, Constable, Monet, Picasso, and Matisse, among many others The American art collections are the most comprehensive in northern New England, and include works by Homer, Hassam, O'Keeffe, Calder, and Gottlieb, as well as extensive holdings of sculpture, photography, glass, silver, pewter, and furniture The caliber of the collections matches that of many major metropolitan museums, and objects are frequently loaned to museums around the world The Currier has a long-standing commitment to collect the best art made in New Hampshire in order to reflect the region's vital cultural traditions An annual roster of 4-5 special exhibitions that complements the permanent collection displays are interpreted through a range of programs including guided tours, hands-on art making activities, artist talks, and through such resources as family guides Approximately 6,806 students visit the Currier each year on a formal tour program The Art Center offers year-round studio programs with annual enrollments of over 1,484 students from 40 surrounding communities The Zimmerman House draws about 4,368 visitors annually on guided tours of about 12 visitors each Outreach programs reach public schools, libraries, social service agencies and community organizations throughout New Hampshire The Currier's collections are accessible to the public through the online collections database (www.currier.org), which includes images and basic data for all 13,100 objects in the collections and extended text entries for 400 key works It also provides supplemental information to support the online curriculum for educators (curriculum.currier.org) The Currier's mission, approved by the Board in 1994, embraces the following principles The Currier Museum of Art is committed to providing stimulating, diverse, and enjoyable encounters with original works of art and, in so doing, hopes to inspire the hearts, minds, and imagination of its members and visitors It is dedicated to high standards of exhibition, preservation, research, interpretation and education, and enhancement of its collection The Currier is determined to serve all age groups and a culturally varied audience from New Hampshire and the surrounding region The Currier's vitality depends upon its responsiveness to changes in the arts and in society while maintaining a sound financial base on which to expand its activities
Part V, Line 4	The endowment funds are used for Museum operations, art acquisition, conservation, library book purchases, and scholarships
Part X, Line 2	The Internal Revenue Service, in a letter dated July 16, 2004, determined that the Museum is a publicly-supported charity under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) and, therefore, not subject to federal income taxes or federal excise taxes imposed upon private foundations Tax-exempt organizations could be required to record an obligation for income taxes as the result of a tax position they have historically taken on various tax exposure items including unrelated business income or tax status In accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, assets and liabilities are established for uncertain tax positions taken or positions expected to be taken in income tax returns when such positions are judged to not meet the "more-likely-than-not" threshold, based upon the technical merits of the position Management has evaluated the Museum's tax positions taken on its filed tax returns and concluded that the Museum has maintained its tax-exempt status, does not have any significant unrelated business income and has taken no uncertain tax positions that require adjustment to the financial statements The Museum is no longer subject to income tax examinations by the federal or state tax authorities for years before 2011
Part XI, Line 2d - Other Adjustments	Rental Expenses 15,078
Part XII, Line 2d - Other Adjustments	Rental Expenses 15,078
Schedule D, Part III, Line 5	A painting was partially purchased (for $15,000), at an amount substantially less than its estimated fair market value, and partially donated, subject to a restriction made by the donor requiring that the painting be used as a prize in a fundraising raffle The painting was raffled off and given to the winner of the raffle
