Part VI - line 11a

Every year since the school was founded, the 990 tax report has been prepared by Karen Poage, Head of School from the school's incorporation until her retirement at the end of June 2008 (end of fiscal year 2007). Karen remains a member of the school's board of directors and has offered to continue to prepare the 990 tax report for the foreseeable future.

Karen has had the close cooperation of current Head of School Kim Milliman and Co-head Jean Westelman to collect and process materials for the 990 report that are part of the school's records. When the 990 report has been completed (and sent), a full copy is sent at once to the board treasurer. We expect he will review it at once and express any concerns immediately. In the absence of concerns from the treasurer, copies of the 990 report have always been, and will again be, made available to the remaining board members when the board next meets (normally in late spring) and the report is reviewed with the board at that time (by the treasurer).

Part VI - lines 15a

In the spring of 2009, near the end of the first school year not under the direction of the school's founding Head, the board met in executive session to determine the salary of the new Head of School, based on performance during her first year. The school was fortunate to have undergone a very carefully planned succession process and the board was not at all disappointed in the performance of the long-associated new Head. A similar annual review has happened again each year, most recently in May 2014. [Note: This formal evaluation process had not happened in earlier years because the founding Head—in support of a newly developing school—was able to volunteer a good deal of her time without compensation. This unique situation of her own choosing would not be appropriate for a new Head in a now well-established school.]

Part VI - line 15b

The budget for each upcoming academic year is proposed and approved in a preliminary fashion at the board's fall meeting (one of two regular annual meetings) in October or November each year. This is necessary primarily in order to set tuition rates as the admissions season begins, but teacher contracts are also normally prepared in spring before the spring board meeting. The board considers comparative material from other Montessori schools in the northeast and from local public and private non-Montessori schools. An individual teacher's training and years of service are also factors in determining salary. Over the years, the school has been very fortunate in having an exceptional teaching staff and excellent retention, so board discussion is generally very positive. A reasonable balancing of tuition increases with salary increases contributes to salary limitation: teachers in most small private schools—ours included—find their greatest rewards in other aspects of their employment rather than exclusively in salary.

Part VI - line 18 and 19

The Head of School is well aware that 990 tax reports and certain other documents must be available for public inspection. Records are filed in an orderly fashion at the school and are therefore readily available should the Head receive an appropriate request. This has not yet happened (February 2015).

Part XI - 9 The change included on line 9 is the distribution for calendar year 2014 from the school's endowment fund (Good Works Fund) held by the New Hampshire Charitable Foundation.
