Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part III, Line 1	The collections, which were acquired through purchases and contributions since the College's inception, are not recognized as assets on the statement of financial position. Purchases of collection items are recorded as decreases in unrestricted net assets in the year in which the items are acquired, or as temporarily or permanently restricted net assets if the assets used to purchase the items are restricted by donors. Contributed collection items are not reflected on the financial statements. Proceeds from deaccessions or insurance recoveries are reflected as increases in the appropriate net asset classes.
Schedule D, Part III, Line 4	Occasionally the College receives gifts of art or collectibles which are put on display in various buildings throughout the campus. We also maintain library archives of College historical documents and book collections kept for posterity.
Schedule D, Part IV, Line 2b	The College maintains custodial or "pass through" accounts for Federal student loans, Pell grant and state grants. Funds are held in these accounts until distributed to individual students. The College also maintains custodial accounts for student government and student ministry groups and activities.
Schedule D, Part V, Line 4	The intended use of endowment funds is driven by donor restrictions on our endowments. Approximately 67% of appropriated revenues this year were in scholarship awards. 20% of revenues supported general activities and physical plant. The remaining 13% was allocated to instructional activities and academic support programs. Distributions of income are made using a total return method. We use a spending rate of 4.75% of the 3-year rolling average of the fair market value of the investments.
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	FIN 48 Footnote: The College is a not-for-profit organization as described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended (the Code), and is generally exempt from income taxes pursuant to Section 501(a) of the Code. The College is required to assess uncertain tax positions and has determined that there were no such positions that are material to the financial statements.
Schedule D, Part XI, Line 2d	This figure includes the FWS apportionment budget allocation of 188,033 included in income on the financial statements, special events expenses of 138,958 included in expense on the financial statements and loss on disposal of assets of 9,925.
Schedule D, Part XI, Line 4b	Included here are scholarships and grants of 21,269,380 treated as tuition discount on the financial statements, FSEOG and FWS of 428,197 treated as pass-through activity on the financial statements and not reflected in income.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule E, Part I, Line 3	We draw a substantial percentage of our students from New England and the northeastern States but also draw students nationally and worldwide. We follow a racially nondiscriminatory policy as to our students. Because of this, we believe that the publicity requirement is satisfied by complying with section 402. Because we are an interdenominational Christian college, our market appeal is to a smaller segment of the general population. Given the technology available today, we have invested in our web site as the way to reach the most students. Our promotional activities and recruiting efforts in each geographic area are designed to inform students of all racial segments interested in a Christian college of the availability of Gordon College.
Schedule E, Part I, Line 6	Gordon College receives Title IV funds for aid to students from the Department of Education for Federal Work Study, FSEOG, Federal Pell grant and other Federal student aid grant programs.

990 Schedule F, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule F, Part I, Line 2	Grants and scholarships to international students are treated as tuition discounts and are applied as accounting credits on each student's bill. They are not paid directly to the student. Merit scholarships are awarded based on academic criteria and are renewed annually based on satisfactory GPA requirements that are verified by the Registrar's Office. Donated scholarship funds are awarded based on criteria provided by donors. Specific eligibility is verified annually by the Registrar's Office, Admissions and the Financial Aid Office. Need based grants are awarded based on the student's determined financial need. The College uses information provided by the CSS Profile of the College Board. The grant amount is carried forward from year to year unless there is a significant change in determined financial need.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 2
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b	The controller prepares the 990 and submits it for review to the vice president for finance and the president. Once the 990 is approved by the president and vice president, it is provided to the board before filing. The Form 990 has also been reviewed by tax advisors from a national accounting firm. It is then signed by the vice president for finance and filed electronically.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c	An annual Disclosure Form delineating conflicts is distributed to all trustees at the annual board meeting and must be signed by each trustee. A copy is mailed to any trustee who is absent and must be signed and returned. Trustees must recuse themselves from any discussion of or vote on any issue involving conflicts of interest. Key employees and officers must also sign an annual conflict of interest form which clearly delineates conflicts of interest. College counsel monitors and reviews the conflict of interest statements. The president's office collects and maintains them.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15	The executive committee of the board serves as the compensation committee for the president's position. CCC and CCCU compensation studies of college presidents are reviewed by the committee and the salary is set by committee vote. The president has an annual review by the committee and is judged based on attainment of goals for the year. The president submits compensation comparability data to the committee for the provost, vice president for finance and executive vice president positions. Compensation increases are based upon job performance and the independent studies. Minutes are kept of the process and the committee vote. The last review process took place in 2014.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19	Our governing documents are available upon request. Our conflict of interest policy is available on our public web site. Our financial statements are available upon request and copies are maintained in the College library.
