Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part V, Line 4	The intended use of the restricted endowment funds are dictated by the donor which are predominantly for instructional purposes and scholarships. Earnings from unrestricted endowment funds are used for operations according to the spending policy established by the University's Board of Trustees.
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	The University accounts for the effect of any uncertain tax positions based on a "more likely than not" threshold to the recognition of the tax positions being sustained based on the technical merits of the position under scrutiny by the applicable taxing authority. If a tax position or positions are deemed to result in uncertainties of those positions, the unrecognized tax benefit is estimated based on a "cumulative probability assessment" that aggregates the estimated tax liability for all uncertain tax positions. The University has identified its tax status as a tax exempt entity as its only significant tax position, however, the University has determined that such tax position does not result in an uncertainty requiring recognition. The University is not currently under examination by any taxing jurisdictions. The University's federal tax return is generally open for examination for three years following the date filed.
Schedule D, Part XI, Line 2d	Scholarships and grants provided to students of ($41,642,959) and loss on defeasance of long-term debt ($1,045,036) are presented as contra-revenue items in the audited financial statements and as an expense on the Form 990. Change in fair value of interest rate swaps of ($159,454) and change in value of split-interest agreements of ($10,408) are presented as contra-revenue items in the audited financial statements and as other adjustments to reconcile the change in net assets on the Form 990.
Schedule D, Part XI, Line 4b	Fundraising event expenses of $31,175 and loss on disposal of property and equipment of $202,500 are shown as expense items in the audited financial statements and as contra-revenue items on the Form 990.
Schedule D, Part XII, Line 2d	Fundraising event expenses of ($31,175) and loss on sale of property and equipment of ($202,500) are shown as expense items in the audited financial statements and as contra-revenue items on the Form 990.
Schedule D, Part XII, Line 4b	Scholarships and grants provided to students of $41,642,959 loss on defeasance of long-term debt of $1,045,037 are presented as contra revenue items in the audited financial statements and as an expense on the Form 990.

990 Schedule F, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule F, Part I, Line 2	The University monitors all grants outside the United States by directly applying the grant to the student's account to cover a portion of the student's tuition in accordance with standard financial aid policies and procedures

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule F, Part I, Line 3	Study abroad is an opportunity for students to continue the Roger Williams University education while living in another country. Study abroad is not merely a travel experience, but an academic experience (first and foremost) in an international setting. The study abroad programs are separately tracked in the University's general ledger system by activity and the amounts reported represent direct spending in foreign countries for tuition payments, lodging, travel and incidentals for students and faculty liaisons. The admissions recruiting and fundraising amounts are tracked primarily using the University's credit card system and represent travel, meals, and lodging costs for University employees conducting business in these regions. All expenses are under the accrual method of accounting.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule J, Part I, Line 1a	Housing Allowance - A residence on the employer's premises is used for both University business functions and as a personal residence by the President for the convenience of the employer and is treated as nontaxable compensation. The value of the personal space within the residence is included as a nontaxable benefit on Schedule J. Health or social club dues - The University paid social club membership dues for the President. Since the use of the memberships were for business purposes it was not treated as taxable compensation. Personal Services - The University regularly cleans the President's residence and the value of the maintenance of the personal space is taxed accordingly.
Schedule J, Part I, Line 4	The President of Roger Williams University participated in a University 457(f) plan and $25,000 was accrued under the plan in calendar year 2013.
Schedule J, Part I, Line 7	For University non-aligned employees, merit based compensation may be granted as either a base salary increase or a one-time bonus. Qualifications for receiving a bonus include performance exceeding expectations or taking on additional duties due to staff vacancies or temporary absences. For the compensation of the University's President, the bonus amount (if any) is determined by an employment agreement along with a review and approval of the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees, who are all independent of the President. It is noted that the bonus payments in calendar year 2013 for the President represented merit bonus payments for fiscal year 2012 and fiscal year 2013. In the case of all other officers and other key employees, the bonus amount (if any) is determined via the same process as other compensation for officers and other key employees, including review by the University's President, who is independent of the other officers or key employees.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part III, Line 1	Roger Williams University is an independent university that combines the unique strengths of small liberal arts colleges and those of larger comprehensive universities and where liberal and professional education are enhanced by their integration and the recognition of their unity At the foundation of the Institution is a set of core values that play a central role in guiding a respectful, diverse, and intellectually vibrant university community "Love of learning as an intrinsic value", "Preparation for careers and future study", "Collaboration of students and faculty in research", "Commitment to community through service and sustainability", "Appreciation of global perspectives", "Promotion of civil discourse"

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 2	Trustees Mario Gabelli and Richard Bready have a business relationship

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b	IRS Form 990 is prepared by the Controller, VP for Accounting and Treasury Management and the Executive VP for Finance and Administration, along with assistance from the University Office of General Counsel. The completed Form 990 and schedules, along with relevant back up, are provided to an independent accounting firm for review. Upon completion, the form is provided to the Audit Committee of the Board of Trustees for review, discussion and approval. The completed and approved Form 990 is then sent to all members of the Board of Trustees prior to filing with the IRS.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c	Trustees, officers, key employees and managers are all required to annually (or more frequently in the event of a new potential conflict) disclose any potential conflicts of interest by completing a conflict of interest disclosure form. These disclosures are collected by the Office of General Counsel and provided for vetting to 1) the full Board of Trustees for Trustee disclosures, 2) the President for officer and senior management disclosures, or 3) senior management for down-line key employees and managers. The University's Conflict of Interest Policy and by-laws both contain provisions that provide for individuals with actual and potential conflicts to refrain from participating in discussion of, and voting on, matters where such conflicts exist.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15	The compensation for the University's President is contractually set and is reviewed by the Executive Committee and the Board of Trustees, all members of which are independent of the President. The Executive Committee's review currently includes, but is not limited to, the use of comparability data and other outside consultants. The process for determining compensation for the University's other officers or key employees includes a review by the University's President, who is independent of the other officers or key employees. The President's review currently includes, but is not limited to, the use of comparability data and other outside consultants. In addition, the compensation of officers and key employees falls within the parameters of the University's non-aligned merit compensation program that is approved by the Board of Trustees on an annual basis.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19	Governing documents are available in part through the Rhode Island Secretary of State's office. The University's by-laws and Conflict of Interest Policy governing employees and the corresponding disclosure form are available on the University's website.
