Return Reference	Explanation
Part IV, Line 2b Explanation of escrow account liability	The Foundation is named as the trustee and remainder beneficiary of several charitable remainder trusts. In addition, the Foundation has entered into contracts with donors for charitable gift annuities for which the Foundation has accepted contributions. The present value of the liability for future payments is reflected on the Foundation's balance sheet. The Foundation has a contractual arrangement to act as the University's agent in managing the University's endowment assets, ensuring consistent management of endowment assets that support the University regardless of entity ownership. Starting in fiscal year 2013 the market value of the endowment pool is reflected on the Foundation's balance sheet.
Part V, Line 4 Intended uses of the endowment fund	The Foundation's endowment funds provide grants to the University of Connecticut. The grants may be used to provide scholarships to University of Connecticut students, compensation and research support for University of Connecticut faculty, and general program support for University of Connecticut academic and athletic programs. The use of all endowment funds is subject to any restriction placed on funds by donors. All disbursements are subject to the Foundation's policy on disbursements, including the amount of the expenditure must be reasonable, for a legitimate business purpose, and with no private benefit.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a Compensation Review & Approval Process - CEO, Top Management	The Foundation's salary structure is market-driven and undergoes a rigorous, periodic review under which compensation levels are compared to organizations of similar size and mission. The salaries and benefits of the UCONN Foundation's officers and key employees are subject to approval in advance of payment by a majority of disinterested directors on the HR Committee of the Board of Directors and subsequently by a majority of disinterested directors on the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors. The officers and key employees are not in a position of control with respect to either Committee. The Committees rely on appropriate comparability data in determining the reasonableness of the compensation packages. Minutes adequately documenting the basis for the HR Committee and the Executive Committee's decisions are maintained. The approval of compensation packages occurs in June for compensation to be paid in the subsequent fiscal year.
