Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part III, Line 4	The artwork includes works of art that are done by the students and local citizens to exhibit their talents. These works are generally used for public display or in departmental offices.
Schedule D, Part V, Line 4	The College's endowment fund is intended to support the College's educational mission. The endowment consists of approximately 105 individual funds. The endowment earnings are used to fund the College's daily operations, including scholarships, student programs, and other campus activities. The Board of Trustees through its approved investment policy guidelines has interpreted the New York Prudent Management of Institutional Funds (NYPMIFA) to allow the College to spend below the historical dollar value of its endowment unless specific donors have stipulated to the contrary.
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	The College recognizes the tax effects from an uncertain tax position in the financial statements only if the position is "more likely than not" to be sustained if the position were to be challenged by a taxing authority. The assessment of the tax position is based solely on the technical merits of the position, without regard to the likelihood that the tax position may be challenged. The College is exempt from income taxes under IRC Section 501(c)(3), though they are subject to tax on income unrelated to its exempt purposes, unless that income is otherwise excluded by the Code. The tax years ending 2011, 2012, 2013 and 2014 are still open to audit for both federal and state purposes.
Schedule D, Part XI, Line 4b	Institutional Aid totaling $19,292,926 is shown as expense on Form 990 Part IX but netted against revenues in the financial statements. Fundraising expenses totaling $299,804 is shown as a reduction of net income from fundraising events on Form 990 Part VIII but is shown as an expenses in the financial statements. Fundraising expenses are netted again revenue in the financial statements.
Schedule D, Part XII, Line 4b	Institutional aid totaling $19,292,926 is shown as as expense on Form 990 Part IX but is netted against revenues in the financial statement. Fundraising expenses totaling $299,804 is shown as a reduction of net income from fundraising events on Form 990 Part VIII and is shown as an expense in the financial statements. Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule J, Part I, Line 1a	The President of the College is permitted certain perquisites by virtue of his position at the College. By contract, the President is entitled to a housing allowance and social club dues. The President's housing allowance represents a non-taxable fringe benefit as he accepts the housing as a condition of employment. The President uses the social club solely in a business capacity and therefore, this likewise, is a non-taxable fringe benefit. The compensation of the President is approved by the Board of Trustees.
Schedule J, Part I, Line 4	The President of the College is a participant in a Section 457(f) plan and receives employer funded contributions.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule M, Part I, Line 32b	As part of its capital campaign program and its regular fundraising efforts, the College solicits donations from many sources. In those instances where non-cash assets are acquired, generally in the form of donated publicly traded securities, the securities are transferred to our outside investment manager and received into an account set up to receive such donations. The College requests from the donor a statement asserting that the securities can be liquidated. The investment manager then liquidates the securities and the cash is transferred to the appropriate cash account for its intended use.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c	The conflict of interest is required to be completed annually for all Board members, officers and key employees. Any transactions or business relationships between the College and a trustee or family member is subject to review and approval of disinterested members of the Board of Trustees to ensure that such transactions or relationships are in the best interest of the College and complies with College policy and all applicable legal and ethical guidelines. The Executive Committee of the Board shall report to the full Board periodically, and at least annually, on any significant transactions and relationships.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15	Compensation of the President of the College and its key employees are approved by the Board of Trustees. The compensation is based on several factors including data collected from and compared to various colleges and universities. Increases in salaries and benefits that are in excess of that approved by the Board as part of the budget process are presented to the Executive Committee of the Board for consideration and approval.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19	The College does not post its financial statements on any website. Copies are made available upon request. The Form 990 tax return is posted on Guidestar and is made available in the College's finance office. Bylaws and other governing documents are maintained on the premises and are also available upon request.
