In addition, staff and volunteer leaders involved with the day to day operations of publications, special interest groups, chapters and conferences monitor these activities constantly to insure compliance with our primary purpose and includes reporting of any potential conflicts of interest. Any potential conflicts are dealt with through the activities governing authority and the individuals involved.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15a	The Compensation Committee is comprised of the President, Vice President, and Past-President. They are all members of ACM's governing body the ACM Council and are elected by ACM's Professional members. The HR Administrator at ACM provides the Committee with data for salaries and compensation for CEOs of comparable organizations. This information is provided to the HR Administrator by third party agencies and is derived from compensation surveys and information gained from Form 990 returns of other organizations. The Committee, with the survey and comparable data in hand, makes a decision on compensation for the CEO based upon measureable goals established the previous year for the CEO and the CEO's accomplishments for that year. The Compensation Committee also provides the average merit increase percentage recommendation to Council that will be used in the ACM budget that becomes the basis for performance review evaluations for all other staff. The HR Administrator provides compensation data for comparable organizations and organizations in ACM's region from third party agencies to the Committee to evaluate in order to make its decision on the recommendation.
