Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule C, Part II-B, Line 1	The University, through the Association of Governing Boards, contacts the Board of Trustees periodically to urge them to contact their legislators regarding funding support issues such as New York State (NYS) Bundy Aid and the NYS Tuition Assistance Program. Alumni are also periodically encouraged to contact their state and federal representatives. The President, Chief Financial Officer and Government Relations Officer sign official communications including lobbying appeals. The University's governmental relations office has a part time director and a part time secretary. The office is principally responsible for monitoring government action at the local, state, and federal levels, reporting significant actions which impact the University to appropriate offices, and where appropriate, to lobbying legislative and executive bodies. The vast majority of lobbying communications and direct contact with legislators or legislative staff members emanates from this office. The University conveyed their position on various state and federal issues, as well as miscellaneous economic development, energy and environmental issues.
