| Schedule D, Part X, Line 2    | The Agency is a nor-for-profit corporation and is exempt from income taxes as an organization qualified under Section 501 c 3 of the Internal Revenue Code. The Agency has also been classified by the Internal Revenue Service as an entity that is not a private foundation. For tax-exempt entities, their tax-exempt status itself is deemed to be an uncertainty since events could potentially occur to jeopardize their tax-exempt status. As of June 30, 2014 and 2013, the Agency did not have a liability for unrecognized tax benefits. The Agency files tax returns in the U S federal jurisdiction and New York State. The Agency is no longer subject to U S federal and state income tax examinations by tax authorities for years through 2010. |

| Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c | A full disclosure of all facts of any relationship or transaction, which is or may be subject to any doubt, shall be made to the Agency's Board Chair in advance or as soon as discovered. A summary of responses will be maintained and provided to the Chair of the Board of Directors each fiscal year. The Chair of the Board of Directors will be responsible for ensuring compliance with the policy for Board actions. The President and CEO will be responsible for compliance for employees.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15  | To ascertain that the compensation package of the chief executive continues to be fair and reasonable the Board will perform the following steps: compare packages internally based on responsibilities and experience, compare compensation to greater-Rochester area compensation of similar positions, using sources such as The Rochester Business Journal, 990s, compensation studies, and other identified available resources; the review and approval of compensation by the HR Committee of the Board of Directors; the HR Committee will report to the full Board that the review was completed. The chief executive will review compensation packages of key employees. All compensation is approved by the Board through the annual budget approval process. An external compensation study was done in the Fall of 2010. Positions included CEO, CFO, Principal, Directors. |
| Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19  | Governing documents, conflict of interest statements and financial statements will be maintained at the Agency's main location and be available to the public.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
