Return Reference	Explanation
Part V, Line 4	The School has adopted investment and spending policies for the endowment assets that attempt to preserve or increase its purchasing power over time, while providing a relatively stable and constant stream of cash distributions for use in the current operations of the School.
Part X, Line 2	The School is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions. There are currently no such audits for any tax period in progress. Management believes that the school is no longer subject in income tax examinations for years prior to 2011. The School's policy is to classify income tax related interest and penalties in interest expense and miscellaneous operating costs, respectively. The School has not recognized any amounts for interest and penalties accrued at June 30, 2014 and 2013.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	The organization monitors and enforces its conflict of interest policy by requiring each trustee and senior administrator to sign an annual statement disclosing any conflict of interests
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15a	The executive director's salary is reviewed annually by the personnel committee. This process includes the review of salary data results compiled annually by the National Association of Independent Schools (NAIS) through its Statsonline annual statistical data survey. Comparative compensation reports are reviewed to benchmark groups, including when available New Jersey Association of Independent Schools (NJ AIS), Friends Council on Education (FCOE), and Association of Delaware Valley Independent Schools (ADVIS). This is done annually, the last time was in June 2013. The final agreement was documented in a contract signed by the executive director as well as the clerk/president of the board. The organization has no other officers or key employees therefore question 15b is answered "no"
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19	Princeton Friends School makes its governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements available to the public upon request. In addition, the governing documents and policies are made available to the public via various school publications including the student & parent handbook, personnel manual, and head of school's annual report. The development director will usually send the annual audit report of financial statements and Form 990 to organizations that Princeton Friends School solicits for grants.
Form 990, page 11, Part XI, Question 2c	The organization has not changed the process of overseeing the audit or selecting an independent accountant during the fiscal year.
