Part III

1. Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Multi-service family and individual social services agency.

Catholic Social Services of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia continues the work of Jesus by affirming, assisting and advocating for individuals, families and communities.

4a

Community-based Services

Services are provided at nine family service centers located throughout the five county Southeastern Region of Pennsylvania. The centers are the first point of contact for voluntary clients seeking a range of services including brief and emergency services, material assistance, individual, marital and family counseling and information and referral. Further, each county has a defined pregnancy support program with some sites offering ongoing parent education services. A growing service has been our afterschool programs now located in eight inner-city Catholic elementary schools and three Philadelphia family service centers. One Philadelphia site staffed by attorneys offers Immigration Services.

A total of 39,727 clients were served.

4b

Housing and Homeless Programs

Services to the homeless include St. John's Hospice serving over 350 men daily in the lunch program as well as providing 40 emergency shelter beds and a 27 capacity late night coffee house program. Mercy Hospice, a recovery house program for women, provides residential services to 23 single women and 8 women with their children. They also provide day services to 30 – 60 women a day. Women are referred to Mercy from the Philadelphia prison system as well as from various substance detox clinics throughout Philadelphia. Two transitional housing residences serve 18 medically fragile homeless men and women, McAuley House and Good Shepherd House. Transitional housing is provided at Visitation Homes offering 18 independent apartments for mothers and children recently discharged from emergency shelter. Two Women of Hope sites provide 46 beds for homeless women with a history of mental illness.

A total of 8,762
clients were served.

4c

Child Care

Foster and Kincare services for dependent youth referred from Philadelphia Department of Human Services serve 80 children daily. Our main objective is safety and permanency for children with increasing numbers of children moving to adoption, permanent legal custodianship and return home to families.

A total of 180 clients were served.

Rider to Form 990 for the year ended June 30, 2014

Part VI, Section A, Line 1A:

The President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, and any Directors appointed by the President shall constitute the Executive Committee, which shall have authority to act on behalf of the Corporation in any matters requiring actions between meetings of the Board.

Part VI, Section A, Line 6:

The organization is a Pennsylvania nonprofit nonstock corporation that has three members. The members are those persons who, from time to time, hold the following offices: the Archbishop of Philadelphia, the Vicar for Administration of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia and the Vicar for Clergy of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia.

Part VI, Section A, Line 7a and 7b:

The members of the organization have the power to appoint the members of the organization's board and fill vacancies on the board. Decisions of the organization's governing body, such as the decision to dissolve, merge, and make fundamental changes involving the organization, are, as stated in the organization's Bylaws, subject to the approval of the organization's members.

Part VI, Section A, Line 11:

A copy of Form 990 was made available to the organization's Board of Directors before it was filed. Directors were encouraged to provide comments on the organization's Form 990 prior to it being filed with the Internal Revenue Service.

Part VI, Section B, Line 12b:

Officers, directors and trustees are required to disclose annually interests that could give rise to conflicts. Key employees are not currently required to disclose conflicts; however, the organization might revise its conflict of interest policy in the future so that key employees will be required to disclose. The organization currently has no "key employees" as such term is defined for purposes of Form 990.

Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:

The organization regularly and consistently monitors and enforces conflicts with its conflict of interest policy by: (i) distributing the policy annually to all required to report conflicts pursuant to the policy (ii) requiring those required to report to complete and file with the organization a conflict of interest reporting form (A) acknowledging receipt of the organization's conflict of interest policy and (B) reporting any actual or potential conflict of interest. Independent of the organization's conflict of interest reporting form, the conflict of interest policy imposes upon those persons subject to the policy an ongoing obligation to disclose any actual or potential conflict of interest.

Part VI, Section B, Line 15

On an annual basis the Finance Committee of the Board of Directors reviews the compensation paid to people in key positions for reasonableness. Each key staff person's annual increase is the same percentage given to all positions as approved by the Board of Directors. In addition, a market rate adjustment, if warranted, is approved as part of the annual budget approval. Any increase above the approved percentage is considered an exception subject to approval by one of the organization's members -- the Vicar for Administration for the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. The Vicar also determines the salaries of key employees.

Part VI, Section C, Line 19

The organization's Articles of Incorporation are available to the public via the Pennsylvania Department of State's website. Financial information for the organization is made available to the public via this Form 990, which includes, Schedule D, Parts XI-XIII reconciling the information reported on Form 990 to the organization's financial statements. The organization's Form 990 is available via GuideStar's website.
