Swarthmore students are expected to prepare themselves for full, balanced lives as individuals and as responsible citizens through exacting intellectual study supplemented by a varied program of sports and other extracurricular activities. The purpose of Swarthmore College is to make its students more valuable human beings and more useful members of society. Although it shares this purpose with other educational institutions, each school, college, and university seeks to realize that purpose in its own way. Swarthmore seeks to help its students realize their full intellectual and personal potential combined with a deep sense of ethical and social concern.

4a (Code) (Expenses $ 128,946,384 including grants of $ 28,062,000) (Revenue $ 85,621,000)

Swarthmore is a co-educational College of Liberal Arts and Engineering. The average enrollment for fiscal year 2013-14 was 1,506. There were 151 students studying abroad. Of the total student population, 1,371 come from across the United States while 163 come from various foreign nations. The College strives to make it possible for all admitted students to attend Swarthmore, regardless of their financial circumstances and to enable them to complete their education if financial reversals take place. Approximately 52% of the student body received financial aid from the College in fiscal year ending June 30, 2014. The College is committed to meeting all demonstrated financial need through scholarship and student employment. Demonstrated need is assessed by careful review of families' financial circumstances. Swarthmore College is committed to the principle of equal opportunity for all qualified persons, without discrimination against any person by reason of sex, race, color, age, religion, national origin, handicap, or sexual orientation. This policy is consistent with relevant governmental statutes and regulations, including those pursuant to Title IX of the federal Education Amendments of 1972 and Section 504 of the Federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973.
