Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part V, Line 4	Donations given to Concordia University Foundation are endowments that ultimately assist Concordia University's educational and religious activities. Donors have placed restrictions on the endowment payout in the following ways: 1) financial aid given to Concordia University students, 2) support for Concordia University's Student Services and Academics, 3) support for Concordia University's Maintenance and Operations of Plant and University general operations.
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	The University and Foundation are organizations described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) of 1986, as amended and, as such, are exempt from federal income tax on income earned related to exempt activities under IRC Section 501(a). In addition, the IRC has determined that the University and Foundation are not private foundations within the meaning of Section 509 (c) of the IRC. The FASB issued guidance that requires tax effects from uncertain positions to be recognized in the financial statements only if the position is more likely than not to be sustained if the position were challenged by a tax authority. Management has determined that there are no material uncertain tax positions that require recognition in the financial statements. The tax years ended 2011, 2012, and 2013 are still open to audit for both state and federal purposes.
