Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2, Part III, column (b), and any other additional information.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule I, Part I, Line 2	If a client has a special need or request it can be met through our client needs fund. An application detailing the request and the purpose are filled out by the client and caregiver or local staff. The initial authorization is given by the division director and final approval is given by the CFO or controller. For a purpose such as a dentist visit or a purchase of furniture, a check is written directly to the vendor. If a client needs assistance with utility bills or perhaps needs new clothing, a check is written to the client. Our organization oversees the client finances so we are able to monitor the expenditures and ensure the grant is used for its intended purpose.
