Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 2:

Explanation: Certain board members have family relationships with other board members.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 6:

Explanation: The Foundation has a sole corporate member, dignity health, a 501(c)(3) exempt organization.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 7a:

Explanation: The existing members of the Foundation's governing body vote on the selection of new members of the governing board. The board of the sole corporate member of the Foundation, Dignity Health, ratifies the selection of new members of the Foundation's governing body.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 7b:

Explanation: Reserved rights of the corporate member include adoption of mission and philosophy statements, amendment or restatement of articles of incorporation and bylaws, dissolution of the corporation, acquisition of another corporation, creation of a new subsidiary, merger or consolidation with another corporation, participation as a general or limited partner or consolidation with another corporation, participation as a general or limited partner in any venture, incurring long term indebtedness in excess of normal operating requirements, ratification of board member appointments and dismissals, selection and removal of independent auditors, and transactions outside the ordinary course of business.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11:

Explanation: The board has established an audit committee and an executive committee to which it has delegated the responsibility for reviewing and approving the 990. Management of the Organization is responsible for performing an initial review of the 990. After this review is complete, the 990 is submitted to the audit committee for their review and ultimate recommendation of approval by the executive committee. A copy of the 990 is then provided to the executive committee. Upon approval by the executive committee the 990 is filed.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:

Explanation: The Foundation has adopted Dignity Health's Conflicts of Interest Policy. The Foundation board is charged with monitoring proposed or ongoing transactions for conflicts of interest and addressing any potential or actual conflicts. Pursuant to the Conflicts of Interest Policy, an annual conflict of interest questionnaire, aimed at determining any family and business relationships and transactions or other transactions that may pose a potential conflict, is distributed to all covered persons (e.g. board members, officers, executive leadership, and key employees). Covered persons are required to disclose real or potential conflicts at the time such conflicts arise. When someone becomes a covered person and annually thereafter, each covered person is required to sign a statement affirming that he/she: (1) has received a copy of the conflicts of interest policy; (2) has read the policy and understands the policy; and (3) agrees to comply with all requirements of the policy, including completing the conflicts of interest questionnaire. The completed questionnaires are reviewed by dignity health's legal department and any persons with actual or potential conflicts are informed via written communication. The procedures for addressing any conflict of interest include, but are not limited to, the following: (1) the conflicting interest is fully disclosed to the board; (2) the interested person responds to factual questions related to the substance of the transaction or arrangement being considered, after which he/she shall leave the meeting; (3) the person with the conflict of interest is excluded from the discussion and approval of such transaction; (4) alternatives to the proposed transaction are investigated, competitive bids or comparable valuations are obtained; (5) any conflicting issues during the course of a board meeting which cannot be resolved are referred to the Governance Committee; and (6) the transaction or action must be approved by a majority of disinterested persons. All conflicts of interest, whether resolved or unresolved, are reported in the Foundation's 990.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15:

Explanation: Although the Foundation does not directly employ any personnel, the supported organization's board appoints a compensation committee, comprised solely of independent directors, none of which have a conflict of interest with respect to the compensation arrangement, to be accountable for setting reasonable compensation packages for each officer or key employee (including the executive director). The compensation committee develops, consistent with the organization's philosophy and principles, the annual performance goals and criteria to be used in determining merit increases and variable compensation criteria for officers and key employees. The compensation committee also hires a qualified independent compensation and benefits specialist to review, analyze and provide benchmarking data for the total compensation and benefits packages of officers and key employees. Appropriate comparability data is obtained from the independent experts, i.e., total economic benefits paid by similarly situated organizations (both taxable and tax exempt) for similar job responsibilities. The committee's written records include (1) the terms of the arrangement with the disqualified person (including the date the arrangement was approved); (2) a list of members present during the debate on the transaction (and how the members voted when it was approved); and (3) a description of the comparable data relied on by the committee. Key deliberations of the committee are also documented in minutes which are approved at the next committee meeting.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 18:

Explanation: The Organization was formed prior to the existence of the IRS Form 1023. However, it does make available information regarding how it qualified for exempt status and proof of its exempt status upon request.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19:

Explanation: Federal tax laws do not mandate that the Organization's governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements be made available for public inspection. The Organization makes its financial statements available to the public upon request.

Form 990, Part XI, line 9, Changes in Net Assets:

all compensation of employees of the Hospital including those that spend their time working for the Foundation. The Foundation reports as an in kind donation from the Medical center the cost associated with work for the Foundation performed by these employees. The list of directors, key employees and highest compensated employees requires that compensation paid by the related organizations be disclosed whether work was performed for the Foundation by the individual listed or not. Thomas Salerno did not perform any work for the Foundation for which he was compensated. The compensation shown for the other individuals listed was for work performed on behalf of the Foundation and was reported as an in kind contribution to the Foundation.
