990EZ, Part III, Mission & Program Service Accomplishments

Mission: To empower communities to educate for a just and peaceful world.

Accomplishments: World Citizens promotes the following outstanding programs: Onsite Peace Education, Online Peace Education and International Peace Sites. The online course can be taken for credit through Hamline University in St. Paul, MN. World Citizens also provides opportunities for youth at the Nobel Peace Prize Forum at Augsburg College in Minneapolis, MN. These programs and activities empower communities to educate for a just and peaceful world. World Citizen Peace Education continues to expand by about 20 participants a year. Since the beginning of this program in 2003, 275 educators from over 100 schools in the Midwest have participated in the Peace Education Program. During the twelve years of Peace Education opportunities, more than 68,000 students have been positively impacted by what educators bring back to their school and community. This past year we have offered all of these opportunities to leaders in places of worship, communities, businesses and parents. This has expanded our work to include other segments of a community as well as schools. Six trained facilitators assumed the full time leadership role for all sessions in 2013-2014 as well as facilitating the Online Peace Education. We have been able to have very skilled speakers/presenters add their expertise to the depth of each session as well. The International Peace Site Program continues to grow each year. new sites and rededications include schools, businesses, places of worship and homes throughout the United States. There are more than 200 Peace Sites in Minnesota and approximately 450 worldwide. Website upgrades continue to be made to accommodate worldwide contact as well as offering social networking opportunities. The World Citizen Board of Directors has been very active this year marketing activities and fundraising. Many contacts have been made and the work of the organization has been highly promoted. World Citizens continues to be very active and growing in our outreach efforts.
