Part II-B, Line 1i - Other Activities Description	OSSA cooperates with COSA and OSBA in support of legislative activities effecting Oregon's public Schools. OSSA maintains a lobbying presence on behalf of issues of critical importance to small schools through the employment of a professional lobbyist and the presence of an active Legislation & Policy Committee. The Legislation & Policy Committee is composed of one representative from each region plus the chair. Regional representatives serve as alternates on the Legislative & Policy Committee. While OSSA has a broad legislative platform, it has also identified its most improtant priorities which include preservation of small school funding provisions such as small school factor, transportation enhancement, and small high school grants.
