Return Reference	Explanation
Part III, Line 1a If organization elected under SFAS 116 to not report are, historical treasures, o	As permitted by generally accepted accounting principles, the University does not capitalize works of art, historical artifacts, and collectibles, which are principally acquired by donation
Part III, Line 4 Description of organization's collections and how it furthers its purpose	The University has obtained certain art work, rare books, and historical artifacts that are held in safekeeping at the University's library and art gallery. These items are used for educational purposes as the University is a private institution of higher education.
Part V, Line 4 Intended uses of the endowment fund	The university's endowment fund provides a relatively stable investment income stream to the university's operations. As noted in Schedule D, Part V, Line 1(d), a significant portion of that investment income is restricted by endowment donors for student scholarships. The remaining endowment investment income provides annual support to various programs of the university.
Part X FIN48 Footnote	The University records income tax liabilities and assets using a threshold of more likely than not for recognition and derecognition of tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. The University does not believe that there are any unrecognized tax benefits or costs that should be recorded in the financial statements.
