Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part III, Line 1	The University follows a policy of not recording or capitalizing its collections of works of art, historical treasures, and similar assets.
Schedule D, Part III, Line 4	Nash Library maintains the Gannon University Archives which seeks to collect and preserve selected documents and artifacts related to the history of the University, particularly, the achievements of the University's faculty, students, and staff as well as its relationship to the Catholic Diocese of Erie and the greater Erie community.
Schedule D, Part V, Line 4	The University endowment funds are invested over the longer time horizons to earn a return that supports programs of the University as directed by donors.
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	The University accounts for uncertainties in income taxes in accordance with authoritative guidance, which prescribes a recognition threshold of more-likely-than-not to be sustained upon examination by the appropriate taxing authority. Measurement of the tax uncertainty occurs if the recognition threshold has been met. Management determined there were no tax uncertainties that met the recognition threshold at June 30, 2014 and 2013. The University's federal Exempt Organization Business Income Tax Returns for years subsequent to June 30, 2010 remain subject to examination by the IRS.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule I, Part I, Line 2	Gannon awards scholarships to freshmen and transfer students who meet eligibility standards for merit based aid such as academic and leadership awards. In addition, need based aid is considered for students who demonstrate financial need by filing the required applications and adhering to deadlines. Award packages are renewed each year to students that remain in academically good standing and continue to meet the required eligibility standards for both types of merit and need based aid. Students need not apply for specific scholarships since they will automatically receive consideration for all funds for which they may be eligible when they submit the FAFSA.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c	Gannon has two conflict of interest policies, one for members of the Board of Trustees and one for employees. Each Board member is required to complete a conflict of interest form at the September board meeting. These are gathered by the President's Office with copies sent to the Internal Auditor. The Internal Auditor then analyzes the disclosures made with the assistance of the Vice President for Finance and Administration and prepares a summary of any relationships disclosed. All employees are required to sign a conflict of interest form upon hire. If any relationships are disclosed, a copy of the form is sent to and analyzed by the Internal Auditor. Key employees are required to complete an updated form annually. In May of each year, the list of key employees is analyzed and updated as necessary by the Internal Auditor with the assistance of the Vice President of Finance and Administration. In September of each year the forms are sent to the individuals identified as key employees. The completed forms are then analyzed by the Internal Auditor and Vice President for Finance and Administration and a summary is prepared of any relationships disclosed. Both summaries are then presented to the Audit Subcommittee of the Board of Trustees at the February Board meeting.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15	The Evaluation/Executive Compensation Committee of the Board of Trustees meets regularly to consider the compensation packages of the President and Vice Presidents and to approve any changes to current written employment contracts. The Committee reviews the compensation surveys, comparable industry compensation data, and 990's from comparable institutions. As it relates to the President, the Committee engages an independent compensation consultant. Minutes are kept for Committee meetings.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19	The University makes its governing documents, conflict of interest policy and financial statements available to the public upon request.
Form 990, Part XI, Line 9	Loss on assets disposed of
