The Corporation has analyzed filing positions in all of the federal and state jurisdictions where it is required to file income tax returns, including the Corporation's status as a tax exempt entity. The Corporation recognizes interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits in interest and income tax expense, respectively. The corporation believes its income tax filing positions, including its status as a tax exempt entity will be sustained on audit and does not anticipate any adjustments that will result in a material change to its financial position. Therefore, no reserves for uncertain tax positions, nor interest and penalties have been recorded in the financial statements.
