Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b Form 990 Review Process	The tax return is prepared by an outside accounting firm. After completion of said returns, the organization is sent a draft of the tax returns to be reviewed and examined. The organization makes copies of the returns and distributes to those individuals charged with governance. Those individuals at that time can review and if applicable discuss any line items in the return with the accountant who has prepared the return. If all items are found to be acceptable, an affidavit is signed to authorize the outside accounting firm to process, sign and provide copies of the returns to be filed with the designated governmental agencies. Before the tax returns are filed, a final tax return copy is forwarded to all Board members. The tax returns are then signed by the organization, stamped with certified return receipt and timely placed in the mail for filing.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c Explanation of Monitoring and Enforcement of Conflicts	The organization's employee has a duty to promptly disclose any transaction they believe may involve a conflict of interest. When any employee becomes aware of a conflict of interest transaction (whether before or after the transaction takes place), each employee is expected to disclose to the Executive Director all material facts regarding the nature of the conflict of interest and the parties involved. When informed of the details of the transactions, the Executive Director determines if a conflict of interest exists and, if so, the remedy to ensure the transaction is reasonable. Employees or board members involved in the potential conflict of interest transaction are excluded from the decision-making process. At any meeting of the Board of Directors at which a transaction involving a board member or a person affiliated with a board member will be considered, said Director will disclose to the other members of the Board all material facts regarding the nature of the transaction or the Director's affiliation with any person or entity with whom the Board is considering entering into any transaction. After a conflict of interest disclosure is made by a Director at a Board meeting, said Director will leave the meeting while the implications of the affiliation are considered and voted upon. The remaining board members will determine whether a conflict of interest exists.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a Compensation Review & Approval Process - CEO, Top Management	THE GOLC's Board of Directors, excluding any person with a conflict of interest, is responsible for determining the compensation of the organization's Executive Director. In making its determination, the Board considers compensation information of comparable organization in terms of size of revenue and scope of responsibilities to ensure compensation is reasonable. Documents and other information that supported the decision-making process are kept with the notes of the compensation meeting. Compensation of GO Leadership Center's other key employees is set by the Executive Director in consultation with the Board of Directors. The Executive Director considers compensation information of comparable organizations to ensure reasonableness. This information is shared with the Board of Directors and is kept with the notes of the meeting(s).
