K-12 civic engagement program and curriculum development. Nebraskans for Civic Reform (NCR) works with schools to create civic engagement programs that are supplemental to their existing civics curriculum. NCR works with teachers to tie in civic engagement into their existing curriculum. NCR then recruits community leaders to be civic engagement mentors to go into the classrooms and engage students in the community. In addition to civic engagement mentor recruitment and orientation, NCR also recruits local non-profits, governmental organizations, and other entities to help develop and provide interactive and engaging service learning projects for the civic engagement mentors to help implement with the students. In sum, NCR provides the resources for civic engagement curriculum development, recruitment of community leaders, non-profits, and provides coordination of the different elements of the program. Finally, NCR is also working to create the Nebraska Civic Health Partnership in conjunction with the National Conference on Citizenship to increase collaboration and create a unified vision for improving civic engagement across Nebraska among various non-profits, state agencies, and other stakeholders.
