Return Reference	Explanation
Part V, Line 4	Income from the organization's endowment funds are awarded as scholarships to needy or gifted students to continue their studies at the institution. Part V, line 1e. Other expenditure for facilities and programs is a negative expense of $592,572 for four years back. This represents transfers that do not sum to zero due to the transfer of prior gifts released by the Attorney General for treatment as permanently restricted funds.
Part X, Line 2	The financial statement effects of a tax position taken or expected to be taken are recognized in the financial statements when it is more likely than not, based on the technical merits, that the position will be sustained upon examination. Interest and penalties, if any, are included in expenses in the statement of activities. As of June 30, 2014, the University had no uncertain tax positions that qualify for recognition or disclosure in the financial statements. The University files information tax returns in the U S and various states. The University is generally no longer subject to U S federal and state income tax examinations by tax authorities for years before 2009.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 1
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 2	Janice Supplee and David Warren - family relationship
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	Cedarville's board of trustees operates in committee fashion. The Business Committee (also serving as the audit committee and investment committee) is responsible to the full board for financial related items. As such, a copy of the Form 990 was provided to the Business Committee for review prior to filing. Additionally, the University's outside independent CPA firm prepared and reviewed the Form 990 prior to filing.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	The University enforces compliance with the conflict of interest policy by requiring trustees to annually sign bylaws statements. All trustees are required to disclose to the board any possible conflict of interest at the earliest practicable time. No trustee shall vote on any matter under consideration at a board or committee meeting in which such trustee has a conflict of interest. The minutes of such meetings shall reflect that a disclosure was made and that the trustee, having a conflict of interest, abstained from voting. If a trustee is uncertain as to whether a conflict of interest may exist, the trustee may request the board or committee resolve the question by majority vote.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	Compensation for the President and other officers is set by an independent body consisting of the Executive committee of the Board of Trustees. Comparable market data from CCCU and CUPA is used. This process and results are thoroughly documented in the committee minutes.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19	The University makes its governing documents and conflict of interest policy available to the public upon request. Financial statements are not available to the general public.
Form 990, Part XI, line 9	Change in the value of interest rate swap 239,986. Change in value of split interest agreement -211,776.
Form 990, Part XII, Line 2c	The organization has a committee that assumes responsibility for oversight of the audit of its financial statements and selection of an independent accountant. This process has not changed since the prior year.
