Renew Counseling and Recovery Center specializes in treating domestic violence, trauma experiences, and alcohol/drug addictions. All staff members are licensed and credentialed and provide treatment to adults and children. A certified art therapist provides children's counseling and group treatment for at-risk teenagers. All staff members are trained in trauma-informed care and provide evidence-based treatment approaches. Renew is CARF accredited and certified for both substance abuse and mental health treatment by the Ohio Department of Mental Health and Addiction Services. During the fiscal year, 434 clients received counseling services.

4b (Code:) (Expenses $ 336,200 including grants of $) (Revenue $)

The Canton Domestic Violence Shelter offers free housing on an emergency 24-hour daily basis to victims of domestic violence and their children. A client-centered continuum of care is provided through comprehensive services in a trauma-informed care environment. Case management services, including safety planning and linkage to community resources, are available and the shelter provides food, clothing, and limited child care and transportation services to residents. Eight rooms with private baths and two rooms with a shared bath are available, with a maximum of 32 beds. For the current fiscal year, the Canton shelter provided safe refuge for 293 residents for a total of 8,163 nights of shelter. DVPI's 24-hour crisis hotline is housed in the Canton shelter with 4,134 calls answered in the

4c (Code) (Expenses $ 203,749 including grants of $) (Revenue $)

Legal Advocacy Support Services provides justice systems advocacy and support for victims of domestic violence. Clients are assisted through the court process and given safety planning and information about community resources, crime victims' compensation, and the Ohio victim information notification network (VINE). Legal advocates help victims navigate civil and criminal courts and assist them in understanding legal rights, attending court hearings, filing criminal protection orders, speaking with the prosecutors and police, and reinforce safety planning with shelter residents as well as with clients who access services exclusively through the courts. A partnership with Mercy Medical Center offers forensic evidence collection for clients, aiding in prosecution of

Part V, Line 4 - Intended Uses for Endowment Funds

The income from these endowment funds will be used for the needs of the Agency at the discretion of the Board of Trustees.

Part X - FIN 48 Footnote

Effective January 1, 2009, generally accepted accounting principles require the organization to evaluate the level of uncertainty related to whether tax positions taken will be sustained upon examination. Any positions taken that do not meet the more-likely-than-not threshold must be quantified and recorded as a liability for unrecognized tax benefits in the accompanying balance sheet along with any associated interest and penalties that would be payable to the taxing authorities upon examination. Interest and penalties associated with unrecognized tax benefits would be classified as additional income taxes in the statement of income. The organization believes that none of the tax positions taken would materially impact the financial statements and no such liabilities have been recorded.

Western Stark Shelter offers free housing on an emergency 24-hour basis to victims of domestic violence and their children. Services are provided in a trauma-informed care environment. Case management services, including safety planning and linkage to community resources, are available and the shelter provides food, clothing, and limited transportation services to residents. Six rooms with private baths and a total of 19 beds were available this year. 115 residents received 4,821 nights of shelter.

Community Education provides speakers for area organizations and training for professionals in the medical, law enforcement, education, and social services fields, as well as prevention education in the schools. The Dating Violence Prevention Program offers programming in the schools for teens and youth about healthy relationships and how to recognize abuse. The LifeSkills Training Program provides evidence-based substance abuse prevention programming in the schools. Safe Dates, an adolescent dating abuse prevention curriculum, was designated as a Model Program by SAMHSA. DVPI reached 214 students with Safe Dates this year, 335 students participated in the Dating Violence Prevention Program, and 895 in LifeSkills.

The Transitional Housing program releases families from housing concerns, giving adequate time to rebuild lives, transition into permanent housing, and integrate into a community. Eight to ten adult clients, along with their children, can be supported in housing of their choice for a period of six months to two years, allowing victims of domestic violence or sexual abuse the opportunity to heal and move towards self-sufficiency.
