Part V, Line 4- Endowment Purposes: The most significant purpose of the endowments is tuition and support. Staff development, strategic planning, and educational program development are additional purposes

The school is tax-exempt pursuant to Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The School adopted the accounting standard on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes, which addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under the guidance, the School may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. Examples of tax positions include the tax-exempt status of the School, and various positions related to the potential sources of unrelated business taxable income (UBIT). The tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from such a position are measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50 percent likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement.

The guidance on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes also addresses de-recognition, classification, interest and penalties on income taxes, and accounting in interim periods. At June 30, 2014, there were no unrecognized tax benefits identified or recorded as liabilities. The School is no longer subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service for years before 2010.

Part VI line 11a -- Form 990 is prepared by GSDS Staff and reviewed by outside accountants. It is then distributed for Board review prior to filing with the Internal Revenue Service.

Part VI, line 12c -- At the beginning of each school year, questionnaires are distributed to each member of the Board to complete regarding potential conflict of interest. A staff member then reviews the forms for possible conflicts. Board Members recuse themselves if conflict exists.

Part VI, line 15a -- A committee is formed to interview possible candidates for the Head of School position. The committee then does research on similar schools for salary comparison. They prepare a contract for the new hire complete with a graduated compensation scale. The Board/Committee approve the compensation and the contract.

Part VI, line 19 -- The governing documents, various policies, and financial statements are available upon request through our front office.

Part XI, line 9 -- Other changes in net assets -- Change in Pension Liability, $215,343--the change in pension liability which represents the change in the School's share of the Jewish Federation of Cleveland's plan's unfunded liability for the year ending June 30, 2014. The JFC funds the now-frozen retirement plan for GSDS and other organizations.
