This guidance requires the evaluation of tax positions taken or expected to be taken in the course of preparing the Local Union's financial statements to determine whether the tax positions are "more-likely-than-not" of being sustained by the applicable tax authority. Tax positions with respect to tax not deemed to meet the "more-likely-than-not" threshold would be recorded as a tax benefit or expense in the period. Management has concluded that there is no tax benefit or expense to be recorded for uncertain tax positions by Local Union 130 for the period. The tax returns of Local Union 130 for the years ended June 30, 2011, 2012 and 2013 are subject to examination by the applicable tax authority, generally for three years after they were filed. |

| Part I, Line 1a   Relevant information in regards to selections on 1a                       | The filing organization provides an executive allowance to the Business Manager of $100 per week. The executive allowance has been approved by the organization's Governing Body. The executive allowance is to be used by the Business Manager to pay for incidental business expenses incurred in the course of performing his duties for the organization. The weekly executive allowance is given to the Business Manager in order to lessen the burden of substantiating business expenditures which are de minimis. The executive allowance is designated as taxable compensation to the Business Manager. The filing organization provides a per diem amount for each day of travel out of town if made in connection with the duties of employment. Per diems were given to ten full-time officers, ten part-time officers, one employee and the Director of Political and Municipal Affairs in the year. The daily per diem amount is intended to cover the cost of the employee's meals and incidentals while out of town on business. The Business Manager of the organization assigns which employee(s) is to attend each out of town function by letter addressed to the respective employee. The amount of the daily per diem is determined by the Financial Secretary Treasurer and is dependent on the location of the out of town function. The daily per diem amount is then compared to the United States General Services Administration per diem rates by location which is published annually. The daily per diem amount paid in excess of the amount of meals and incidentals published by the United States General Services Administration for the location of the out of town function is designated as taxable compensation to the employee. |
