Part V, Line 4	The Agency's endowment funds are used in support of the Agency's programs. Most of the Agency's programs are government-funded and these monies do not fully cover the costs of delivering services to our clients.
Part X, Line 2	The Society, an Illinois nonprofit corporation, is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and applicable state law, except for taxes pertaining to unrelated business income, if any. The Society follows the accounting guidance on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes, which addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under this guidance, the Society may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. Examples of tax positions include the tax-exempt status of the Society and various positions related to the potential sources of unrelated business taxable income. The tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from such a position are measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50 percent likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. There were no unrecognized tax benefits identified or recorded as liabilities during the year. The Society files Form 990 in the U.S. federal jurisdiction and the State of Illinois. The Society is generally no longer subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service for years before 2011.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 2
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	The organization's tax advisor will prepare Form 990 based upon information provided by management and will present a draft to the Finance Director. The Finance Director reviews Form 990 and suggests changes. Upon the Finance Director's approval, the return will then be presented to the Executive Director for review. The Audit Committee and Board of Directors will review Form 990 before it is filed with the IRS.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Each agency stakeholder, including board members and key employees, is provided with a written copy of the agency's conflict of interest policy annually in compliance with the conflict of interest policy. It is the responsibility of the Executive Director and Chairperson of the Board of Directors to ensure that all agency stakeholders maintain compliance with the conflict of interest policy. The forms are reviewed by the agency's executives and, if a conflict arises, the Board President is made aware.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	CCCS develops and utilizes a salary survey in determining employee compensation with the salary scale. Jobs are grouped according to the education level required to perform them, as well as the complexity of responsibilities associated with the job. A salary scale is then determined for each job family. CCCS utilizes an independent consultant to review and recommend the salary scales. In addition, salary studies conducted by salaries.com, Abbott Langer and The Child Welfare League of America are used to ensure that salary levels mirror those of other non-profit organizations in urban, Midwestern locations. Salaries are reviewed and approved by the Human Service Committee of the Board of Directors and are documented in the meeting minutes.
