Schedule D, Part III, Line 1	As stated in the University's audited financial statements, note B, "The University has a collection of art objects, most of which were contributed to the University. The value of these objects is not recorded in the accompanying statement of financial position. The University's Board of Regents has given the authority to sell a significant portion of the collection. While management has been given the authority, it does not currently intend to dispose any significant portion of these art objects. Management will sell or transfer ownership of an art object if it is ever determined that that art object no longer furthers the University's mission.
Schedule D, Part III, Line 4	The University has a collection of art objects, most of which were contributed to the University without solicitation. Nearly all of these objects are paintings or sculptures, many share religious themes, which are consistent with the University's Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod heritage and belief. The objects help the University further its exempt status by providing an overall campus environment conducive of education and learning, acting as educational tools used to demonstrate varying artistic styles and themes, and providing a connection to the University's mission statement by demonstrating the values of "creativity, competence and compassion."
Schedule D, Part V, Line 4	Donations given to Concordia University Foundation are for endowments that ultimately assist Concordia University's educational and religious activities. Donors have placed restrictions on the endowment payout in the following ways: 1) financial aid given to Concordia University, 2) support for Concordia University's Student Services and Academics, and 3) support of Concordia University's maintenance and operations of plant and University general operations.
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	The University and the Foundation are organizations described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) of 1986, as amended and, as such, are exempt from federal income tax on income earned related to exempt activities under IRC Section 501(a). In addition, the IRC has determined that the University and Foundation are not private foundations within the meaning of Section 509(c) of the IRC. The FASB issued guidance that requires tax effects from uncertain positions to be recognized in the consolidated financial statements only if the position is more likely than not to be sustained if the position were to be challenged by a taxing authority. Management has determined there are no material uncertain tax positions that require recognition in the consolidated financial statements. The tax years ended 2011, 2012 and 2013 are still open to audit for both federal and state purposes.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b	There are several distinct steps that Concordia follows in its IRS Form 990 Review Process. A first draft was prepared by Concordia's Controller, and a top level review was performed by University Management. After this initial review, an updated draft was sent to the University's auditor, Grant Thornton. Grant Thornton performed an in depth review of the first draft, requested support documentation for numerous parts of the 990, and provided items for the Controller to consider, verify, and/or correct. The Controller incorporated these items and developed a second draft of the Form 990. Upon completion of the second draft the Controller forwarded the draft, Grant Thornton's list of items, and the Controller's responses to those items to the University's VP for Finance and CFO, who performed an in depth review. Upon completion of this review, the draft was sent to Grant Thornton, along with the Controller's response to their items and changes, if any, identified after their initial review. Grant Thornton performed its final review and provided the Controller with the near final draft. The Controller forwarded the near final draft to the members of the Board of Regents' Finance Committee. This Committee was authorized, through Board Resolution, to act on behalf of the entire Board to review and approve the IRS Form 990. The Finance Committee was given approximately one week to review the IRS Form 990. During this review, members of the Committee emailed the Controller with questions and comments, if any. The Controller compiled these items and amended the 990, as needed. The Controller then sent the Committee the updated return, along with the compiled list of Committee questions and comments. Shortly after sending the return to the Committee, a Finance Committee meeting was held, during which the IRS Form 990 was finalized. Once finalized, the Committee, through resolution, voted to approve the filing of the IRS Form 990. After this vote, the Controller sent the entire Board of Regents a copy of the final Form 990. The Board of Regents was asked to review the return. After approximately one week, the Controller filed the final, approved, IRS Form 990. While not anticipated, if a question or concern expressed by a member of the Board of Regents at an upcoming Board meeting results in a need to correct the already filed return, the Controller would immediately file an amended return.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c	Concordia University Chicago is fully committed to conducting its responsibilities in a manner reflecting the highest degree of integrity and honesty. The success of Concordia in conducting its affairs is the sum of effort of each Board, Committee, and Cabinet member in conducting his or her responsibilities with good judgment and in an ethical manner. As such an appointment, annually thereafter, each member is asked to read, acknowledge understanding, and agree to comply with Concordia's Conflict of Interest Policy. As a part of this process, each member is asked to disclose personal potential conflicts of interest. All such disclosures are reported to the Board and Concordia's President, who determine whether a potential conflict of interest exists. In the event that it is determined that a conflict does exist, the Member is prohibited in participating in all deliberations and decisions associated with all activities involving the related organization. In the event that it is discovered that any inappropriate activity does occur related to an actual conflict of interest, the relevant Member's position would be immediately vacated.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15	In addition to approving the Concordia University's annual contract, there are several other individuals who have their salaries renewed and approved by the Finance Committee of the Board of Regents. These individuals include the President's Cabinet and all individuals who have the ability to affect employees' compensation. This includes all members of the Human Resources and Payroll departments, as well as the University's Controller, Assistant Controller and Director of Budget Services. Annually, the Director of Human Resources and the Assistant Controller provide the Board with these individuals' compensation, as well as comparative data from similar universities. Once the data is reviewed, annual compensation increases for these individuals are either approved or rejected. The approval or rejection is documented through a formal board of resolution of the Concordia University Board of Regents.
