Statement Regarding Operations

The primary exempt purpose of the Kindness is Doing Something Special for Kids (the "Organization") has been to provide support to Lurie Children's Hospital Foundation ("LCHF"), the fundraising unit of Lurie Children's Hospital of Chicago, both located in Chicago IL.

Prior to the fiscal year ending June 30, 2002, the Organization was responsible for providing all of its own accounting and recordkeeping functions. This included the recording of all revenue and expense activity relating to the Organization in their own accounts, the recording of all revenues and expenses in their financial statements, the recording of all revenue and expense items separately for each fundraising event, the reflection of a "net" annual donation (generally receipts less expenses) to LCHF, the preparation of their tax filing reflecting revenues and expenses in their own financial statements and the issuance of donor acknowledgement letters. The Organization considers these activities to be administrative and operational in nature.

During the fiscal year ended June 30, 2002, LCHF assumed the majority of all administrative and operational functions of the Organization and is now providing these services. Thus, the Organization is no longer directly reporting the revenues and expenses on their financial statements or tax returns. All contributions to the Organization and all expenses incurred by the Organization are being recorded by LCHF on a gross basis, are being accounted for in a segregated account and are being reflected in the annual financial statements and tax returns for LCHF. In effect, the Organization is continuing to make similar annual donations to LCHF as their exempt purpose and the nature of their fundraising activities haven't changed. Since LCHF collects and retains all receipts, the excess over expenses is considered the Organization's contributions to LCHF, a public charity. They are also responsible for providing acknowledgements to donors.
