990 Schedule F, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
990 Schedule F Part I Line 2	Describe procedures for monitoring the use of grant funds outside of U.S. Under the by-law s of the Organization, the Board of Directors reviews all requests of funds from foreign o rganizations and for activities in any foreign country, and such requests are required to be in writing in the form approved by the Organization and include a budget for the use of funds and names and qualifications of the individuals who will carry out the project. The accounting department maintains records of all grants made and the details of the funds e xpended. In the case of India, the Organization requires written monthly reports in a form approved by the Organization including numbers of Vedic Pandits participating in the grou p practice of the Transcendental Meditation and TM-Sidhi program and other aspects of thei r daily routine, financial reports, and narrative reports. Grants for the subsequent month are based upon the numbers of Pandits participating in the programs in the prior month. R epresentatives of the Organization work directly with their counterparts in India and make regular site visits. For grants for smaller projects in other countries, the Organization requires reports including financial reports at the completion of the project or no less often than quarterly. A representative of the Organization or its affiliated non-profit or ganizations in the U.S. is directly responsible for the project in the foreign country.
