Part X, Line 2	From the consolidated audited financial statements of St. John Providence Health System ("SJPHS") (which include the activity of St. John Community Health Investment Corporation). The member health care entities of SJPHS are primarily tax-exempt organizations under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) or 501(c)(2), and their related income is exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(a). SJPHS accounts for uncertainty in income tax positions by applying a recognition threshold and measurement attribute for financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part III, Line 4		Community Benefit Report St John Community Health Investment Corporation For the year end ed June 30, 2014 This report illustrates the significant degree to which St John Community Health Investment Corporation (CHIC) contributes to the positive health status of the communities it serves. As a member of Ascension Health, the nation's largest Catholic health care system, CHIC continues to build and strengthen sustainable collaborative efforts that benefit the health of individuals, families, and society as a whole. The goal of CHIC is to perpetuate the healing mission of the church. CHIC furthers this goal through delivery of patient services, care to the elderly and indigent, patient education and health awareness programs for the community, and medical research. Our concern for all human life and dignity of each person leads the organization to provide medical services to all people in the community without regard to the patient's race, creed, national origin, economic status, or ability to pay. In order to portray the full breadth of our contribution, our community benefit information is described below. ORGANIZATIONAL COMMITMENT TO PROVIDING COMMUNITY BENEFIT St John Community Health Investment Corporation serves the elderly and poor in the Southeastern Michigan counties of Wayne, Oakland, Macomb, St Clair and Livingston. CHIC seeks to improve the physical, mental, social and spiritual health status of its surrounding community. CHIC has developed the following programs to help achieve its mission. HEALTH CARE FOR THE UNINSURED St John Providence Community Health Centers provide a wide range of primary care services regardless of one's ability to pay. St John Providence either directly provides primary care or partners with others in the community to provide health care to all those in need. Some sites charge a set fee or use a sliding scale to determine fees. Primary care services include preventive care, health education, treatment of long-term chronic diseases and care for acute problems such as cold, flu, gastritis, and bronchitis. During the fiscal year ending June 30, 2014 the Community Clinics provided services to 988 outpatients and processed 1,926 pharmacy assistance applications. COMMUNITY OUTREACH AND EDUCATION Prevention, encouraging healthy lifestyles and helping individuals cope with illness are the focus of St John Providence Community Health's partnerships. Opportunities are available for individuals to learn about good health-what it is and how to achieve it. Screening programs help individuals identify health concerns, facilitate the management of symptoms and medication, and provide referrals to health care providers. During the fiscal year ending June 30, 2014, 19 screening events were held with 547 people screened. Through our community education classes, information is provided on health and wellness topics as well as management of chronic illnesses. Our walking programs, in local malls, encourage fitness along with fun ways to learn about keeping healthy. Outreach activities provide resources to assess and improve health status through health fairs and partnerships with community coalitions and organizations. During the fiscal year ending June 30, 2014, 32 blood pressure screening events were held with 1,344 people screened and 2,800 publications were distributed. SCHOOL-BASED HEALTH CENTERS St John Providence Community Health operates eight school-based health centers in Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties. The health centers offer free medical services, individual, family and group counseling, referrals, screenings, and school consultations. Through the centers' health education programming, services are offered in the areas of sexual abstinence, social development, violence prevention and management of chronic diseases. During the fiscal year ending June 30, 2014 the School-Based Health Centers had 63,844 medical encounters 13,646 psychosocial encounters 1,365 dental encounters and immunized 2,204 children. INFANT MORTALITY PROGRAM The Infant Mortality Program empowers families to help themselves by making a connection with mothers, fathers and other family members to help build and sustain families, reverse the high infant mortality rate, promote literacy and increase access to health care. Established in 1986 by the communities of women religious to address the alarmingly high rate of infant deaths in Detroit, the Infant Mortality Program is sponsored by the religious congregations affiliated with St John Providence Health System and Trinity Health. During the fiscal year ending June 30, 2014 there were 626 MIHP & PIP client encounters 84 parenting, safe sleep and strong start classes and 27 infant births. RYAN WHITE PROGRAM The Ryan White Program works with HIV/AIDS patients to help manage their health as they live with the disease. The program is funded through Health and Human Services by its Grantee, the City of Detroit Department of Health and Wellness Promotion.
