Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2, Part III, column (b), and any other additional information.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2	Certain funds within the Foundation can be granted in total. Others only a certain percentage can be granted based on Donor Intent and Disbursement Policy. The percentage is set by the Finance Committee at the beginning of each fiscal year for those funds that only a percentage is available for grants. These figures are then used by the Grants Committee for the grant process. Grant applications are submitted according to procedures in place and reviewed by the Committee. The Committee reviews the grant applications, verify they meet set criteria and ultimately submits a list of recommended grants and dollar amounts to the Board for approval. The Board makes final grant approvals. Quickbase is used throughout this process as a mechanism to track grants from the initial application to the payment and final grantee report.
